

The University of Newcastle is one of Australia's leading universities with exceptional achievement in research and an international reputation for innovative approaches to teaching and learning. It is situated in the Hunter, Central Coast and North Coast Regions of NSW.

FACULTY OF EDUCATION AND ARTS

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

Expressions of Interest: Casual Teaching
---

The School of Education is calling for Expressions of Interest from suitably qualified and experienced educators interested in teaching in early childhood, primary and secondary education.

Applications are invited from persons who have a relevant undergraduate degree or higher qualification and teaching experience in the relevant area of interest. The successful applicants will be required to work in a range of undergraduate or postgraduate courses in a flexible working environment in Newcastle at the Callaghan and/or at the Ourimbah Campus on the Central Coast and/or Port Macquarie Campus. Applicants should indicate the campus they are applying for.

Applicants should be prepared to work as a member of a team, use innovative and creative teaching strategies in the classroom and demonstrate commitment to teaching. Experience in adult education would be desirable.

An eligibility list will be created and suitable applications will be held and reviewed against casual teaching vacancies as they emerge throughout 2008.

Submitting an application: In your application you should include a cover letter addressing the items above and include a Curriculum Vitae. In your cover letter please nominate which areas of teaching you wish to be considered for.

Please submit your application marked confidential to:

University of Newcastle
School of Education
University Drive
CALLAGHAN NSW 2308