

Parking Signs

 A green rectangular sign with the text "RESERVED PERMIT HOLDERS ONLY" in bold green capital letters at the top. Below this, in smaller green capital letters, it says "VALID RESERVED PERMIT MUST BE DISPLAYED". At the bottom, there is a green double-headed arrow.	Reserved Parking Reserved permit allows the parking of a motor vehicle in areas in the holders designated bay and sign posted "Reserved Permit Holders Only". To be able to park in a reserved parking bay you need to clearly display a valid Reserved parking permit on the left hand bottom side of the vehicle's windscreen. The expiry date is displayed on the bottom of the permit. Eligibility criteria apply to the issue of this permit. Reserve permits are also valid to park in Open Reserve, Staff and General parking areas.
 A green rectangular sign with the text "STAFF PARKING" in bold green capital letters at the top. Below this, in smaller green capital letters, it says "VALID STAFF PERMIT MUST BE DISPLAYED". At the bottom, there is a green double-headed arrow.	Staff Parking A staff parking permit or conjoint permit allows the parking of a motor vehicle in areas designated and signposted Staff Parking. This permit is also valid for parking in General parking areas. The permit should be displayed clearly on the inside lower left hand side of your vehicle's windscreen and is transferable between vehicles. The expiry date is located on the bottom of the permit.
 A green rectangular sign with the text "VISITOR PARKING" in bold green capital letters at the top. Below this, it says "10 MIN MAX" in green capital letters. At the bottom, it says "VALID PERMIT MUST BE DISPLAYED" in green capital letters, followed by a green arrow pointing to the right.	Visitor Parking Visitors to the University of Newcastle may park in any General parking areas or parking bays signed Visitor Parking. Please be aware of any time limited stated on Visitor Sign. Options for payment: Scratch and Display permit or Machine Vended Day Permit.

	Student Parking Students can park their vehicles in General parking areas only as per the General parking sign. Students may purchase a student annual or half year electrostatic permit or purchase either a Machine Vended Day permit or Scratch and Display permit.
	Motorcycle Parking Motorcycle parking on Callaghan and Ourimbah campuses is free, and no permit is required. Motorcycles must be parked in a designated motorcycle parking bay only. Motorcycles located in bays other than the designated areas may be subject to a fine.
	Residential Parking Areas Residents with vehicles must apply for a Resident Parking Permit at the College Reception in order to park or leave a motor vehicle in a designated residential parking area. This permit must be displayed clearly at all times to use the parking facilities in the Halls of Residence. Vehicles without a valid permit clearly displayed may incur an infringement. Resident permits are not valid for Disabled, Staff, Reserved or general parking bays anywhere on campus.
	Service Parking Only contractors to the University who have been inducted and issued with a service parking permit are permitted to park in a service or loading bay. No other permits are valid for this area.
	Restricted parking areas You must not stop or park (unless you are driving a public utility service vehicle) in an area marked as a restricted parking area. The exception is if you are taking up or setting down persons or goods.
	End restricted parking area End restricted parking area signs are placed at all exit points from an area and this indicates that the restrictions no longer apply.

	Park in bays only You must not park on a length of road where there is a park in bays only sign, except in a parking bay. When you park in a parking bay you must position the vehicle completely within the bay, unless the vehicle is too wide or long to fit completely within the bay. If the vehicle is too wide or long to fit completely within a single parking bay, you must park the vehicle within the minimum number of parking bays needed to park the vehicle.
	Car Park 13, rear of The Forum Signage in car park 13 as shown allows a vehicle to park all day, provided you clearly display either a valid paid University of Newcastle electrostatic permit, ticket from machine or scratch and display permit. However, a NUSport parking permit is limited to park for two hours.
	Car Parks 9 and 12 (The Forum) This sign is displayed in car parks 9 and 12 allowing a vehicle to park for a limit of two hours regardless of whether it is a University of Newcastle electrostatic permit, ticket from machine, scratch and display permit or NUSport electrostatic parking permit. Failure to display one of the above permits may result in an infringement. The Forum parking permit is only issued from the reception counter at The Forum.
