Scholarly books

OA Book Publishers	Many traditional book publishers now have OA book programs. Fees generally apply (authors can use grant funding). The Directory of Open Access Books , a catalogue of >52k open scholarly books, has a list of OA book publishers. Open Book Publishers is a scholar-led, non-profit (free-for-authors) publisher of books in HASS disciplines.
Pressbooks	UON researchers can create and publish OA textbooks using Pressbooks , UON's open textbook platform. For more information on Open Educational Resources, see our OER guide .
NOVA	You may be able to make the accepted manuscript of a chapter OA via NOVA , depending on the publishing agreement.

Conference contributions

OA Proceedings	In some cases, the full proceedings are made OA via the conference website after the conference.
NOVA	You may be able to make the version of record (publisher PDF) or accepted manuscript of papers OA via NOVA .
Posters	Authors generally retain copyright in their posters. This means that you can make them OA via NOVA .

Non-Traditional Research Outputs (NTROs)

Reports	Provided a research report is not confidential, you may be able to make it OA via NOVA (or provide a link to promote it).
NOVA	You may be able to make a copy or representation of your NTRo available via NOVA (or provide a link to promote it).
