- Be available for a presentation ceremony during Scholars Week events (usually around September).

ESTABLISHMENT

The Newcastle Bar Association Indigenous Student Scholarship in Law was created to assist Indigenous students realise their ambition of obtaining a degree in law from the University of Newcastle. It is intended that the financial benefit of the scholarship will offset some of the burdens and challenges that come with completing a law degree full-time.

The Newcastle Bar Association aims to foster support for, and collegiality among, barristers who work in the Newcastle and Hunter region. As well as receiving the financial benefit of the scholarship, the successful recipient will also be provided with an opportunity to connect with a local barrister as a mentor for the duration of the scholarship.

ELIGIBILITY

To be eligible to apply for this scholarship an applicant must meet the following criteria:

- Students enrolled in the B Laws or Juris Doctor program who have completed more than 80 units in their program.
- Establish your Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander identity and heritage with the university as outlined here.
- Have a GPA of 4.0 or higher.
- Be enrolled full-time.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION

The following documentation must be submitted with the scholarship application:

- A written statement (approx. 1 A4 page) outlining your academic achievements, your experience of financial hardship, career aspirations in the relevant area of study, and discussion of how this scholarship would assist you.
- Any applicant that does not submit the required documentation, including documentary evidence, will not be considered for selection.

SELECTION

Preference may be given to students enrolled in the final two years of their degree (eg - 4th or 5th year for Laws, 2nd or 3rd year for JD).

Selection is based on assessment of the scholarship application and suitability for individual scholarships. The selection committee will aim to make scholarship offers to students who are assessed as being most in need of support, however will also take into account the applicant's personal statement and academic progression through you're their degree.

Selection will be made by the Indigenous Selection Panel which will consist of a minimum of three members chosen by the Pro Vice-Chancellor, Indigenous Strategy and Leadership.

Successful recipients will be communicated to by the delegated Scholarships Officer and all applicants notified of an outcome via email. This will usually occur within 6 weeks of the scholarship close date.
