AT THE UNIVERSITY OF NEWCASTLE

Meeting Spaces

Treehouse, Lambert and Nelson Room

The University offers a suite of meeting spaces suitable for various corporate events. Our bushland campus, Callaghan, holds our most popular conference venues accommodating from 22 attendees for a boardroom style or up to 100 attendees for theatre style events.

The Treehouse, Lambert Lounge and Nelson Room are all located on same floor in the Shortland Building and are ideal for smaller conferences, breakout rooms or meeting rooms.

The venues offer state of the art AV facilities including high speed Wi-Fi, data projectors and screens or a wall mounted TV, Zoom capability*, in-house PA systems, lecterns, and microphones.

Each space overlooks the stunning bushland surrounds and are also suitable for special occasions and weddings. You will feel like you have escaped to the bush whilst being only a short drive from the heart of Newcastle.

Catering can be arranged through our on-site caterer or if preferred, you can take a much-needed lunch break at our nearby restaurant, Local Connections.
