1.0 Establishment

- 1.1 The Executive Leadership Team was established on 1 January 2007 by the Vice-Chancellor as a standing committee of the Vice-Chancellor to provide advice on major strategic and operational matters for the University, including the annual corporate planning cycle, strategic priorities and key performance indicators, and workforce planning.

2.0 Function and Responsibilities

- 2.1 Providing advice to the Vice-Chancellor on matters of strategic and operational significance for the University, the primary role of the Executive Leadership Team is to determine the strategic direction of the University in line with the University's institutional strategic plan as approved by the University Council, and to prioritise operational decision-making in the context of this framework.

- 2.2 In undertaking these responsibilities, Executive Leadership Team will provide advice to the Vice-Chancellor on:

- 2.2.1 The University's performance and strategic positioning in the context of developments in the national and global higher education, research and innovation environments;
- 2.2.2 Opportunities for strategic partnerships and alliances with key stakeholders across academic, government and industry spheres to advance the objectives of the University's institutional Strategic Plan;
- 2.2.3 Development of the institutional Strategic Plan and review and management of the corporate planning cycle, including the annual corporate plan, setting and monitoring key performance indicators, targets and corporate priorities for the University;
- 2.2.4 Review of the institution's Long Term Financial Plan and associated targets for revenue and expenditure, where appropriate;
- 2.2.5 Significant strategic and operational matters, including strategic asset management and information technology issues;
- 2.2.6 Significant University-wide education and research matters;
- 2.2.7 Establishment of the principles and practices through which the University will manage the sustainability, performance and ongoing development of its workforce;
- 2.2.8 Providing institutional leadership on work health and safety matters, including proactive management and continuous improvement;
- 2.2.9 Management of major institutional change, including consideration of items arising from internal or external reviews of University Colleges, Divisions or units;
- 2.2.10 Review of the strategic and operational risk profile of the University;
- 2.2.11 Matters arising from other University committees or groups, including Academic Senate and its Committees; the Portfolio Resource Allocation Committee; the Estate Committee; and the University Health and Safety Committee; and
- 2.2.12 As necessary, any other matter (other than that reserved for University Council or Academic Senate) relating to the strategic or operational management of the University.

- 2.3 The Executive Leadership Team will act as a conduit as determined by the Vice-Chancellor for University matters progressing to the University Council and its Committees.
