

Global Strategic Partnership Travel Grant

Funded Projects

The Global Strategic Partnership Travel Grant aims to promote collaborative projects between University of Newcastle academics and ASEAN-based PHD Alumni, highlighting our commitment to fostering mutually beneficial partnerships and enhancing academic collaborations on a global scale.

Congratulations to the ten projects selected for funding in 2023.

Project Title	College/ Division	School/ Unit	Newcastle (Lead)	Alumni	Alumni Institution	Country
Changing the Framework: Working together to change the landscape of STEM education in adolescent learners.	AD	PALS	Dr Zoë Griffith	Professor Mery Napitupulu	Tadulako University	Indonesia
Synthesize structurally unique small molecules from isolated bioactive marine sponges that inhibit GLI using one-spot synthesis method	CESE	SELS	Professor Christopher Scarlett	Professor Yusnita Rifai	Universitas Hasanuddin	Indonesia
Detect advanced adversarial audio attacks for ASR systems.	CESE	SIPS	Dr Sky Miao	Dr Oscar Karnalim	Maranatha Christian University	Indonesia
A novel feature extraction approach for modelling and forecasting of high-dimensional functional time series data	CESE	SIPS	Dr Yang Yang	Associate Professor Gregorius Satiabudhi	Petra Christian University	Indonesia
An innovative model using a self-paced online course to provide services for the management of overweight and obesity in Malaysian families: a pilot study	CHMW	SHS	Dr Kirrilly Pursey	Dr Wai Yew Yang	International Medical University	Malaysia
Investigate the meaning of being parent to a child who is adopted to care in Australia	CHMW	SNM	Dr Margaret Harris	Assistant Professor Dr Juraporn Tangpukdee	Khon Kaen University	Thailand
Explore how youth from Australia and Indonesia are contributing to inclusive and sustainable tourism practices	CHSF	NBS	Associate Professor Tamara Young	Dian Reindrawati	Airlangga University	Indonesia
Explore the role of teacher agency in supporting autonomous language learning and academic engagement in EFL programs in four universities in Indonesia.	CHSF	SOE	Professor Susan Ledger	Professor Nasmilah Nasmilah	Universitas Hasanuddin	Indonesia
Analysis of factors influencing major selection by students at universities in Australia and Vietnam	CHSF	SOE	Dr Sabrina Syed	Dr Thi Loan Lam	University of Khanh Hoa	Vietnam
Develop multiyear collaborative research on higher education digital transformation with particular reference to the future of blended learning in higher education institutions (HEIs).	CHSF	SOE	Associate Professor Scott Imig	Dr Agustinus Bandur	BINUS University	Indonesia