

GRADUATE DIPLOMA TO MASTERS OF TEACHING (SECONDARY) CHANGE FORM

This form is for students who are currently admitted (or have successfully completed) the Graduate Diploma in Teaching (Secondary) and wish to apply to change to the Master of Teaching (Secondary). Please download and complete this form in Adobe.

This completed Change Form is to be uploaded and submitted with your postgraduate application to advise the Teaching Areas you wish to be considered for in the Master of Teaching (Secondary) program.

As we can access any documents you uploaded with your original Graduate Diploma application, you do NOT need to re-attach your ID, a new written task or your academic transcripts again (unless you need to provide a new academic transcript to be considered for new teaching areas).

TELL US THE REASON FOR YOUR CHANGE

I have successfully completed (or am about to complete) the Graduate Diploma in Teaching (Secondary) and wish to continue to the Master of Teaching

Students who complete the Graduate Diploma in Teaching (Secondary) are required to be admitted to the Master of Teaching (Secondary) before they can apply to NESA for Conditional approval to Teach. Upon successful completion of the Master of Teaching (Secondary) students can apply to NESA for Provisional Accreditation to Teach

I can no longer study the Graduate Diploma in Teaching (Secondary) Full-Time, and would like to apply for the Master of Teaching (Secondary) so that I can study Part-Time

I would like to teach in more than one Key Learning Area and would like to apply for admission to the the Master of Teaching in order to apply for Teaching Areas from an additional KLA

Please refer to the Admission Information Pack for detailed information on Teaching Areas and Content Knowledge Requirements
