

WORKPLACE BANKING. FINANCIAL WELLBEING SESSION.

Financial Health Check

A CommBank Specialist will be onsite offering free Financial Health Checks during the 26 March 2018 and 6 April 2018 at the CommBank Branch on Campus.

If you are looking to purchase a property, planning for retirement, consolidate debt or simply wanting to review your banking we can help.

During your free Financial Health Check we'll:

- Help you identify exclusive banking benefits and discounts on CommBank products and services that you may be eligible for as an employees of Newcastle University.
- Ensure you're not paying unnecessary bank fees.
- Point you in the direction of free tools and services to help you with your goals.

Places are limited so book in for a free confidential 15 minute discussion now by registering here:-

Financial Health Check

Things you should know: These presentations are intended to provide general information of an educational nature only. They do not have regard to the financial situation or needs of any reader and must not be relied upon as financial product advice. You should seek independent financial advice before making any decision based on this information.