WELCOME TO THE UONDRH

Welcome to the University of Newcastle Department of Rural Health (UONDRH). We hope you will enjoy your time on placement with us.

Our purpose is to create an exceptional student experience for all residents on placement with us and we are committed to realising our purpose by offering opportunities to our community for engagement and development as well as providing comprehensive health and wellbeing support.

Our hope is for all residents to have a placement that is safe, fun, and vibrant. We hope to offer opportunities for residents to build lifelong friendships and to meet people from all walks of life, to celebrate diversity, to listen and learn from one another, and to be guided to learn and grow as you build your life skills and navigate living with others while studying.

These Accommodation Standards set out expectations and standards for all members of the UONDRH community. UONDRH will provide support along the way to guide residents to meet these expectations so that together we can create and maintain a fulfilling experience for all residents.

COMMUNITY EXPECTATIONS

1. EXPECTATIONS, RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

In strong, positive communities all members know what their responsibilities are and what is expected of them. By choosing to stay in our accommodation, you are choosing to be a member of the UONDRH Community and to abide by the UONDRH Accommodation Standards ('Accommodation Standards', 'Standards') and the University's Code of Conduct. This document should be read in conjunction with, and these standards of behaviour are enforceable under, the Student Occupancy Licence Agreement.

As a member of the UONDRH community and under the University's Code of Conduct you are committed to the values of honesty, fairness, trust, accountability and respect. At all times community members are to behave in a way that upholds these values both as individuals and as representatives of the UONDRH.

The UONDRH reserves the right to make amendments to these Standards at any time. Such updates will be communicated with current residents via e-mail.

You are expected to be familiar with your responsibilities and can expect in return that UONDRH will support you to understand and uphold them.

The UONDRH Accommodation Standards and Student Occupancy Licence Agreement (including the Schedule of Charges) are critical reference points regarding your rights and responsibilities as a valued member of our residential community. Please ensure you are familiar with these documents before you move in and across your entire period of residency. You will hear them referred to often, and the expectation is that you have read and understood them.

Respect is crucial in establishing and maintaining positive shared living environments which you can support by making an effort to get to know the people living around you. This helps you to enjoy your experience together but also makes it easier to address concerns that may come up in your community.

If circumstances change in your living environment, UONDRH staff are here to support you and assist to resolve any issues.

2. YOUR WELFARE

- a) Please disclose to the UONDRH any additional support you may require when living within the UONDRH's student community. This may include pre-existing conditions, or the disclosure of developing concerns. This information will be handled with confidentiality and approached within a framework and for the purpose of support. Information will only be shared with your permission, or where there is significant concern around behaviours that may pose a risk to yourself or others.
- b) The UONDRH may contact you if concerns for your welfare have been reported by staff, peers, or others. This contact may result in referral to other University or non-University support services.
- c) Health and Wellbeing – The UONDRH accommodation is a safe, welcoming, and inclusive environment. We seek to promote respectful relationships, healthy living behaviours and a supportive community. We welcome any request for support from all members of our community.

More Student Support information can be found here:

- University of Newcastle Students
- Students from other Universities

3. CONDUCT

- a) Where there is a perceived or alleged breach of the UONDRH Accommodation Standards or UONDRH Student Occupancy Licence Agreement, the UONDRH may assess the matter in accordance with the Student Conduct Rule.

The process is designed to assist Students in accepting responsibility for their actions and for the consequences of those actions. This assessment process in no way limits the actions the UONDRH can take under the UONDRH Student Occupancy Licence Agreement, such as imposing fees or charges.

- b) For further information, please refer to the University's Student Conduct Rule.

4. REPORTING AN INCIDENT

- a) Residents are encouraged to report any incident that may have affected their health and safety while living at the UONDRH Accommodation; any breaches to these Accommodation Standards or other University policy; or concerns for another resident's safety or wellbeing.
- b) Incidents are reported through the UONDRH Placement Portal, Students on Placement SharePoint site or UONDRH Website. They will be handled by the Student Accommodation Support Team with sensitivity. Further investigation may be required, whereby other parties may be contacted, and potentially dealt with under the Student Conduct Rule or other UONDRH processes.

5. DIVERSITY AND RESPECT

5.1 Respecting Others

Your behaviour and interactions with peers, staff, security personnel and external bodies not only reflect on your own personal reputation, but also impact upon the reputation of the University and the UONDRH.

- b) Noise restrictions are guided by the NSW Protection of the Environment (Noise Control) Regulation 2008. You must keep noise at a reasonable level at all times within the context of the location, the time of day or night, and the time of year.

Drinking alcohol is a personal choice, and likewise you may decide not to consume alcohol.

- c) For the safety and wellbeing of the UONDRH community, activities such as, but not limited to 'lock-ins' and 'pub crawls', and the promotion and organisation of drinking games, or use of equipment, posters or flyers that promote excessive consumption are not permitted. UONDRH and/or Security reserve the right to confiscate items that celebrate or facilitate the excessive consumption of alcohol, including but not limited to, punch bowls, beer bong etc.

BEHAVIOUR MANAGEMENT

UONDRH work collaboratively with residents to investigate and resolve incidents. When incidents are reported, they are reviewed and triaged before a plan of action is decided. For this decision to be made, besides the narratives provided, the following context may be considered.

- The severity of the violation,
- The impact on individuals, the community, facilities and/or UONDRH stakeholders,
- The level of engagement, transparency, accountability and reflection of residents involved in the incident,
- Any past behaviour of concern of residents involved in the incident.

Throughout the process, active engagement from residents is mutually beneficial, as it enables UONDRH staff to gain a comprehensive understanding of each incident, while also providing an opportunity for the residents involved to share their perspective on what occurred at the time, as well as any subsequent reflection they may have had since the incident, which will all be considered in any decision-making around outcomes.

35. BREACH AND DISCIPLINE

Where there is a perceived or alleged violation of the UONDRH Accommodation Standards or Student Occupancy Licence Agreement, or any University rule, code, policy or procedure, then the University may investigate the matter in accordance with the Student Conduct Rule. Any investigation under the Student Conduct Rule in no way limits the fees, charges or other penalties which can be levied under the Student Occupancy Licence Agreement or vice versa.

The UONDRH will determine whether the matter should be handled directly by the UONDRH Accommodation Team or should be referred to the Office of the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) to be assessed under the Student Conduct Rule.

36. INVESTIGATIONS

UONDRH staff will investigate an incident and if deemed necessary, will instigate the appropriate action. UONDRH staff may determine that the alleged violation(s) did not occur and dismiss the case.

An investigation may include an interview of the people involved and/or affected by an incident perceived as a violation. Such interviews will be conducted by the UONDRH or representative and be confidential in nature. Other procedures of investigation, including, but not limited to, photography, CCTV footage and other methods of obtaining evidence, may be used depending on the nature of the alleged violation under investigation. Any documentation created or provided in any investigation will be confidential.

UONDRH staff may, at any time, refer an investigation to be acted upon by other staff within the University and/or UONDRH, including but not limited to, the Deputy Vice Chancellor (Academic) under the Student Conduct Rule. UONDRH staff may, at any time, refer an investigation to the police or any other law enforcement agency or other external agency.

A student can be asked to not contact another Student or Staff member during an investigation if it is deemed necessary and reasonable.

37. OUTCOMES

The severity of the violation and impact on the community and facilities will determine the type of possible action. Failure to comply with any required outcome determined may lead to further consequences. Outcomes can include, but are not limited to:

- a) Written Warnings - The UONDRH may determine that the violation(s) did occur and assign the resident(s) involved a warning. The warning will be rendered in writing and will serve to remind the resident(s) of the UONDRH Accommodation Standards and the UONDRH Student Occupancy Licence Agreement. Additionally, it will alert the resident(s) that further violations may result in sanctions.
- b) Sanctions - The University may determine that the violation(s) did occur and assign the resident(s) involved a penalty. The goal of a penalty is to restore damaged community or individual relationships; educate the resident as to the impact their behaviour has had on the community, and/or address addictions or other behavioural needs. Penalties assigned by the UONDRH may be one or more of the following listed below:
- c) Training or Behavioural Support - The resident is assigned a specific project or program (depending on the violation) to be completed by a set deadline. - f) Fines and compensation - The resident will be asked to compensate for the damages in the event that any resident is found responsible for damage to UONDRH or personal property. The resident may also be required to pay a fine.
