

The UNIVERSITY of NEWCASTLE

GRADUATION 2024
MONDAY 16, TUESDAY 17, AND WEDNESDAY 18 DECEMBER

Monday 16 December 10am Ceremony

HONORARY DOCTORATE AWARD RECIPIENT AND OCCASIONAL SPEAKER

The Honourable Graham Robert Mullane AM

The Hon. Graham Mullane (AM) grew up in Broadmeadow, attended Newcastle Boys' High School and studied law at the University of Sydney.

Returning to Newcastle, he founded the law firm now known as Mullane & Lindsay in 1976. He practised as a solicitor at the firm until 1986 when he was appointed as a Judge in the Newcastle Registry of the Family Court of Australia, aged just 39. Graham served in this role until 2008.

During his time on the bench, Justice Mullane became known in the legal fraternity for his work on many committees and respected for his long-standing practice of talking to children after cases to explain why he had made orders that affected them.

After retiring from his role as a respected judge, he then took on many other roles in the law, which included Judicial Member NSW Administrative Decisions Tribunal, 2009-2013; Costs Assessor, NSW Supreme Court, 2009-2014; Deputy Chair, Health Professional Tribunal, 2012-2013; Acting District Court Judge, District Court of NSW, 2014-2019; and part-time Principal Member and Appeal Panel Member, 2014-2019.

Graham has chaired many well-known foundations, boards and associations and was Chair of the then Royal Newcastle Hospital from 1981 to 1986.

In 2023, Graham Mullane was recognised in the King's Birthday Honours List, a member (AM) in the General Division of the Order of Australia for his significant service to the judiciary, to the law and to the community.

Monday 16 December 10am Ceremony

HONORARY UNIVERSITY FELLOWSHIP RECIPIENT

In recognition of her dedicated service to the University Council and broader University community.

Ms. Jann Gardner

Jann Gardner undertook all of her schooling in Newcastle before moving to Sydney to study Arts/Law at the University of Sydney. On completion of these degrees, she returned to Newcastle to commence a career in private practice with Sparke Helmore, eventually leading one of its largest national practice groups and becoming the Managing Partner of the Newcastle office. Recognising that the management of a legal practice required business expertise, Jann completed an MBA at University of Newcastle during this time.

After retiring from private practice, Jann transitioned to Non-Executive Director and chair roles, in such diverse areas as public utilities, financial, health, medical research, education and the not-for-profit sectors. Notably, Jann chaired the HMRI Foundation and served on the Board of HMRI for several years, before her appointment to the Council of the University of Newcastle. During her time on the Council, Jann chaired the People and Culture Committee and the Risk Committee, as well as chairing the Advisory Board of 2NURFM.

Jann has been a regular trainer for the Women on Boards programme run by the University of Newcastle for its senior female employees, as well as a guest lecturer and speaker at Business Faculty events. Jann also served on the Advisory Board for the Faculty of Law and Business, on selection panels for senior professorial appointments and on a panel performing an external review of the Law degree programme.

Completing her 9-year term in December 2023, Jann has continued her involvement with the University through supporting scholarships for disadvantaged students.

Monday 16 December 2.30pm Ceremony

HONORARY DOCTORATE AWARD RECIPIENT AND OCCASIONAL SPEAKER

Emeritus Professor Mary O'Kane AC

Professor Mary O'Kane AC is a distinguished Australian scientist and engineer, renowned for her contributions to higher education, research, and public policy. Born in Queensland, she pursued her undergraduate studies, majoring in mathematics and physics, at the University of Queensland. She later earned her PhD from the Australian National University, specialising in automatic speech recognition.

Professor O'Kane has held many prestigious academic roles, including the position of Vice-Chancellor and President of the University of Adelaide from 1996 to 2001. In addition to these roles, Professor O'Kane has been a pivotal figure in public service. In 2008, she was appointed the inaugural Chief Scientist and Engineer of New South Wales, where she conducted significant reviews on coal seam gas, energy security, koala population declines, and rail coal dust emissions.

In 2016, Professor O'Kane was appointed a Companion of the Order of Australia, Australia's highest civilian honour, for "eminent service to science and engineering, as a contributor to national policy development and governance, to the promotion of technology research and future energy supply, to higher education, and as a role model for young scientists."

She is currently Chair of the Board of the Australian Energy Market Operator (AEMO), along with many other Board roles across fields from research to tourism and was Chair of the Universities Accord Review (released early 2024). She leads O'Kane Associates, a consultancy specialising in government reviews and innovation.

OCCASIONAL SPEAKER

Professor John Fischetti

Professor John Fischetti is a prominent figure in the field of education, known for his innovative approaches to teaching and leadership. He currently serves as the Professor of Leadership and School Transformation at the University of Newcastle. His career spans four decades, during which he has significantly influenced educational practices and policies across the globe.

His work focuses on transforming educational systems to better meet the needs of all students, emphasising equity, personalised learning, and the integration of technology in education.

Professor Fischetti's academic journey began in the United States, where he earned his Doctorate in Professional Learning from the University of Massachusetts, Amherst. Before joining the University of Newcastle in 2013, he held various leadership roles, including Dean, Department Head, and Doctoral Program Coordinator at several institutions in the US.

At the University of Newcastle, Professor Fischetti has held key positions, including Dean of the School of Education and later as Pro Vice-Chancellor of the College of Human and Social Futures.

He loves to explore what occurs when a teacher designs a lesson and teaches it so well that students 'get it', and how to empower more of that success. Professor Fischetti is a staunch advocate for improving access and success in education.

Through his leadership and dedication, Professor Fischetti continues to inspire educators and shape the future of education, ensuring that learning environments are inclusive, dynamic, and responsive to the needs of every student.

OCCASIONAL SPEAKER

Professor Caroline Homer AO

Professor Caroline Homer AO is Deputy Director, Gender Equity, Diversity and Inclusion at the Burnet Institute in Melbourne and Emeritus Professor of Midwifery at the University of Technology Sydney.

Caroline is a hospital-trained nurse and midwife who found herself at St George Hospital in Sydney as a research midwife in 1996. More through good luck than good planning, and by finding great people to work with at St George and at UTS, she went on to complete two Masters degrees and a PhD and became Clinical Midwifery Consultant at the hospital, also working in the birth centre for many years. She was appointed Professor of Midwifery at UTS in 2005. In 2018, she moved to the Burnet Institute in Melbourne as the co-program director of Maternal, Child and Adolescent Health.

Caroline has led research and development in midwifery, maternal and newborn health including immunisation and health system strengthening for more than 25 years in Australia and across the Asia-Pacific region.

She was the Chair of the Australian's National Health and Medical Research Council, Deputy Chair of the Australian Medical Advisory Board for the Medical Research Future Fund and Chair of the World Health Organisation's Strategic Technical Advisory Committee for Maternal, Child and Adolescent Health and Nutrition (STAGE). Caroline has been part of WHO guideline panels for many years including the recent postnatal care guidelines.

Professor Homer also holds honorary professorial roles at Deakin, Monash, Cardiff, King's College London and the University of Melbourne.

Dr Greg Whiteley

Dr Greg Whiteley is the Executive Chair of Whiteley Corporation, a leading Australian manufacturer of cleaning and hygiene products, with its manufacturing base at Tomago in the Hunter Region.

With a background in microbiology and infection prevention, Dr Whiteley has been instrumental in advancing the company's mission to improve public health through innovative solutions. Under his leadership, Whiteley Corporation has become renowned for its high-quality disinfectants and cleaning products, particularly in the healthcare sector.

One of the company's notable achievements was the development of Viraclean, the first product in Australia to receive a TGA-registered claim for effectiveness against COVID-19.

Dr Whiteley's expertise extends beyond product development. He is a respected figure in the field of infection control, frequently contributing to industry forums and publications. His insights have helped shape best practices in cleaning and disinfection, emphasising the importance of rigorous standards and continuous education. He is an Adjunct Associate Professor at both Sydney University and Western Sydney University, in parallel with his active research projects.

Dr Whiteley has spearheaded the company's construction of a new $25 million human therapeutics plant, aimed at increasing production capacity and supporting the development of new products for international markets, as well as providing significant job opportunities for local people. Whiteley Corporation was named 2024 Hunter Business of the Year.

Celebrating 50 years of building pathways to brighter futures

The University of Newcastle's Open Foundation program is celebrating 50 years. That's 50 years of transforming lives and opening doors to education for all.

Since 1974, Open Foundation has grown to become the largest enabling program of its kind in Australia and is recognised as the industry benchmark.
