Provided that:

a) the arrangement meets the genuine needs of the University and staff member; and
b) the arrangement is genuinely agreed to by the University and the staff member.

4.2 Any flexibility arrangement agreed to under this clause must:

(i) be about matters that would be permitted matters if the arrangement were in an Enterprise Agreement; and
(ii) not include a term that would be an unlawful term if the arrangement were in an Enterprise Agreement.

4.3 The University must ensure that any individual flexibility arrangement agreed to between a staff member and the University will result in the staff member being better off overall than the staff member would have been if no individual flexibility arrangement was made.

PART B: PERFORMANCE AND CONDUCT

6.0 PERFORMANCE REVIEW AND DEVELOPMENT

6.1 The University will promote a Performance Review and Development process that:

(i) aligns each staff member’s endeavours with operational and strategic objectives;

(ii) provides an ongoing opportunity for dialogue, confidential discussions and feedback between staff and their supervisor;

(iii) identifies and facilitates individual staff development to maintain and improve skills, enhance career opportunities and promote organisational performance;

(iv) promotes resolution of performance concerns;

(v) identifies and clarifies roles, duties, goals and objectives, performance expectations; and

(vi) recognises and rewards performance.

6.2 Accountability for Performance Review and Development (PRD) rests with the supervisor, who will be required to undertake appropriate training.

6.3 The supervisor, following discussion with the staff member, may delegate PRD responsibility to an alternate PRD supervisor.

6.4 A PRD Supervisor may delegate a PRD Mentor to carry out PRD. The PRD Mentor will report to the PRD supervisor.

6.5 The PRD supervisor, or PRD Mentor where delegated, and the staff member have joint responsibility for the mutual development of a Performance and Development Plan, which includes:

(i) planning and goal setting;

(ii) performance feedback; and

(iii) review of achievements and the effectiveness of development activities previously undertaken.

6.6 Performance and Development Plans will have regard to the staff member’s level of appointment, duties, workload, the University’s strategic objectives and operational needs, the resources available and equitable access to development opportunities.

6.7 Performance feedback will include student feedback on teaching from at least one course per year for which the staff member has had some responsibility for teaching, as agreed with the supervisor. Student feedback should not be used as the sole measure of teaching performance unless systematic and sustained poor teaching has been evidenced over multiple teaching blocks and there have been previous developmental interventions and strategies put in place to address any identified concerns which have not resolved the issue.

6.8 A mentor may be used to encourage the professional and personal development of the staff member. This is a developmental role distinct from the PRD Mentor role.

6.9 PRD information may be accessed by the supervisor’s manager for the purposes of career planning and development, performance management and to ensure the effective use of PRD.

6.10 Performance Review and Development operates in association with, but separate to:

(i) Managing Staff Workload - Clause 8;

(ii) Performance Concerns – Clause 10;
(iii) Unsatisfactory Performance - Clause 11;
(iv) Staff Development - Clause 16; and
(v) Probation – Clause 9.

7.0 STAFF SUPERVISION

7.1 Each staff member will have a nominated supervisor. This supervisor will be responsible for providing assistance and direction.

7.2 All supervisors will be required to undertake appropriate supervisor training.

7.3 The University will consult on supervisor training requirements with the Teachers Consultative Committee.

8.0 MANAGING STAFF WORKLOAD

8.1 The objective of this clause is to ensure that workloads are equitable, transparent, and reasonable within the ordinary hours of duty and without risks to health and safety.

8.2 The allocation of work will be determined, in consultation with the staff member, by the staff member’s supervisor. Workloads will take into consideration the staff member’s level of appointment and time fraction and the importance of maintaining an appropriate balance between work and family/community life.

8.3 In determining whether work or workloads are reasonable or unreasonable the following must be taken into account:

(i) any risk to the staff member’s health, safety and welfare;
(ii) the needs of the University;
(iii) the nature of the staff member’s role, and their level of responsibility;
(iv) the staff member's personal circumstances including any family and/or carer responsibilities; and
(v) any other relevant matter.

8.4 A staff member's concerns about workload should be raised with the supervisor in the first instance. The supervisor and staff member will meet to discuss and attempt to resolve the staff member’s concerns about workload.

8.5 If the staff member’s concerns remain unresolved, the issue should be raised with the appropriate Director or equivalent.

8.6 If the staff member believes the issue is still not resolved, the matter may be referred by the staff member to the Director, People and Workforce Strategy who will investigate the matter and make a recommendation to resolve the matter.

8.7 Broad, systemic workload concerns are to be raised directly with the Director, People and Workforce Strategy or through the Teachers Consultative Committee.

8.8 In assessing workload concerns, primary indicators to be considered include:

(i) the ongoing need to work excessive hours;
(ii) excessive overtime;
(iii) the inability for staff members to clear accrued leave or TOIL.
9.0 PROBATION

9.1 Staff members, other than casual staff members, may be engaged subject to a reasonable probationary period that is directly related to the nature of the work to be carried out and the nature of the employment. Probation does not apply where the staff member already has a continuing appointment or has previously been employed in the same or substantially similar role.

9.2 Staff members may be subject to a probationary period of up to 6 months. Probation may be extended for a further period of up to 6 months.

9.3 The relevant supervisor is responsible for ongoing and regular assessment of the staff member throughout the probationary period. The assessment of probationary staff will be directly related to their work as defined by the position description, the Classification Descriptors and compliance with University Policies and Code of Conduct.

9.4 Probationary staff will be provided with periodic counselling to confirm progress or identify difficulties. Where concerns about performance are identified during probation, the staff member will be notified at the earliest opportunity. The staff member and supervisor will develop strategies for resolution, including relevant staff development.

9.5 At least one 1 month prior to the end of the probation period, the relevant Director or equivalent will conduct a formal probation review. The Director will meet with the staff member as part of the review to discuss the staff member's performance and conduct, and identify any significant concerns. The Director will prepare a written probation report and provide a recommendation.

9.6 The staff member will be provided with a copy of the probation report. The staff member will have 5 working days from receipt of the report to respond and/or provide additional information in relation to the probation report.

9.7 Following receipt of the probation report and the response from the staff member, the Director will forward the report and any response to the Director, People and Workforce Strategy together with a recommendation that:

(i) the appointment be confirmed;

(ii) the probationary period be extended for a nominated period; or

(iii) the appointment be terminated.

The Director, People and Workforce Strategy will review the recommendation and seek further details if necessary.

9.8 The staff member will be advised in writing by the Director, People and Workforce Strategy of a decision, and reasons, to confirm appointment or extend the period of probation, or a recommendation that the appointment be terminated.

9.9 In the case of a recommendation that the appointment be terminated, the staff member may make a written request to the Director, People and Workforce Strategy that the recommendation be reviewed in accordance with Inquiry Officer - Clause 62. Such a request must be made within 5 working days of written advice of the recommendation being given to the staff member by the Director, People and Workforce Strategy.

9.10 The appropriate Deputy Vice-Chancellor will consider the probation report, recommendation, any material submitted by the staff member and any report arising from a review by an Inquiry Officer under Clause 62 and will decide that:

(i) the appointment be confirmed; or

(ii) the probationary period be extended for a nominated period; or

(iii) the appointment be terminated with 2 weeks notice or payment in lieu of notice.
9.11 The appropriate Deputy Vice-Chancellor will inform the staff member of the decision in writing.

(iii) discuss and set the timeframe within which concerns are to be addressed.

11.0 UNSATISFACTORY PERFORMANCE

(iii) the improvement required;
(iv) activities designed to assist in improving performance (where appropriate);
(v) the time within which reasonable improvement is to be achieved and maintained; and
(vi) the potential consequences of continued unsatisfactory performance, which may include disciplinary action under Disciplinary Action – Clause 13.

11.3 A written record of the discussion and the measures to address the unsatisfactory performance will be made and a copy supplied to the staff member.

11.4 Where the processes referred to above have not produced the required performance improvement(s), the supervisor will make a report in writing addressing the issues identified in Clause 11.2. The report will also include evidence and a record of the measures taken to remedy the unsatisfactory performance.

11.5 A copy of the report is to be provided to the staff member and the relevant Director. Within 10 working days of receiving the report, unless there are exceptional circumstances to extend such time, the staff member may choose to:

(i) respond in writing to the report; and/or
(ii) meet with the Director to discuss the response and/or provide any further information.

Where the staff member is of the view that there are exceptional circumstances a staff member may submit a request to the Director, People and Workforce Strategy for an extension of time. The request must be made within the 10 day period and explain the reasons why the extension is required.

11.6 The Director, after taking into account the supervisor’s report and any response provided by the staff member, will advise the staff member in writing of the decision to:

(i) take no further action;
(ii) refer the matter back to the supervisor for a further review period; or
(iii) recommend to the relevant Deputy Vice-Chancellor that disciplinary action be taken in accordance with Disciplinary Action – Clause 13.

11.7 Where the Director refers the matter under Clause 11.6(iii) the staff member may request that the relevant Deputy Vice-Chancellor refer the matter to a Committee of Inquiry under Clause 63. Such a request must be made within 5 working days of receiving the Director’s written advice.

11.8 If the matter is referred to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor under Clause 11.6 (iii), the appropriate Deputy Vice-Chancellor will take into account:

(i) the supervisor’s report and supporting materials;
(ii) the staff member’s response to the supervisor’s report;
(iii) the Directors’ recommendation under Clause 11.6 (iii); and, if applicable
(iv) any findings and recommendations of the Committee of Inquiry under Clause 63.

(iv) the staff member being intoxicated at work such that the staff member’s faculties are, by reason of the staff member being under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a drug (except a drug administered by, or taken in accordance with the directions of, a person lawfully authorised to administer the drug), so impaired that the staff member is unfit to be entrusted with the staff member’s duties or with any duty that the staff member may be called upon to perform;

(v) the staff member refusing to carry out a lawful and reasonable instruction that is consistent with the staff member’s contract of employment;

(vi) serious and/or repeated bullying or harassment, including sexual harassment.

12.2 Wherever possible, a staff member’s supervisor will attempt to resolve instances of possible misconduct through guidance, counselling and appropriate staff development or work allocation and/or formal written notification of the University’s expectations.

12.3 Any allegations of misconduct or serious misconduct will be considered by the appropriate Deputy Vice-Chancellor. If the appropriate Deputy Vice-Chancellor believes such allegations warrant further investigation he or she will:

(i) notify the staff member of the allegations in writing and in sufficient detail to enable the staff member to understand the precise nature of the allegations and to properly consider and respond to them; and require the staff member to submit a written response within 10 working days unless, where required, the matter has been referred to an external body; or

(ii) where required, refer the matter to an external body with the appropriate jurisdiction to deal with the matter and in such cases, inform the staff member in writing at the time of such referral.

Provided that:

(i) where the suspension without pay occurs at a time when the staff member is on paid leave of absence, the staff member will continue to receive salary for the period of leave of absence;

(ii) the staff member may engage in paid employment or draw on any annual leave or long service leave credits for the duration of the suspension without pay;

(iii) the Deputy Vice-Chancellor may at any time direct that salary be paid on the ground of hardship;

12.5 During any period of suspension the staff member may be excluded from the University, provided that they will be permitted reasonable access to the University for the preparation of their case and to collect personal property.
12.6 If the allegations are admitted in full by the staff member, or if the staff member has not responded to the allegations, and the appropriate Deputy Vice-Chancellor is of the view that the conduct amounts to misconduct or serious misconduct, the Deputy Vice-Chancellor may decide to take Disciplinary Action – Clause 13, and if so, will advise the staff member in writing of the decision and the operative date of the disciplinary action.

12.7 If the allegations are denied in part or in full the appropriate Deputy Vice-Chancellor will refer the matter to a Committee of Inquiry – Clause 63 unless they decide to take no further action, or counsel or censure the staff member for unsatisfactory behaviour and take no other action.

12.8 Any Committee of Inquiry report, or findings of an external body in accordance with Clause 12.3 (ii), will be considered by the appropriate Deputy Vice-Chancellor, who will determine:

(i) there is no misconduct/serious misconduct and take appropriate action; or

18.0 ORGANISATIONAL CHANGE

18.1 Where workplace change is being considered, the University will consult with and provide relevant information to affected staff, including staff on extended periods of leave, in order to work towards mutually acceptable solutions and/or alternatives. Where the workplace change is significant or where staff have concerns regarding the change, consultation will include the Union(s).

18.2 Should mutually acceptable solutions or alternatives not be achieved and where the University is considering workplace change that is likely to have a significant effect on staff, such as:

(i) the termination of the employment of staff members; or

(ii) major change to the composition, operation or size of the University’s workforce or to the skills required of staff members; or

For the purposes of the discussion, the University will provide relevant information, including the nature and likely effects of the change and invite the staff member and Union representative(s) to give their views about the impact of the change, in lieu of the processes in Clauses 18.4 to 18.11 in order to work towards mutually acceptable solutions and/or alternatives. Where the workload of more than one staff member would be significantly affected by the change, this will not be considered a one staff member change.

18.4 The University will draft a Consultation Paper to facilitate consultation with, and provision of information to, affected staff and the Union(s). The Consultation Paper will address:

(i) an explanation of the University’s rationale, process and quantifications that lead to the requirement for change;
(ii) means and timeframe for change;
(iii) identification of the positions affected and the stakeholders on whom the change will impact;
(iv) financial, staffing and training implications; and

Preference will include employment and/or training and development for positions at their classification level and within the ambit of their skills and experience.

19.3.2 The salary of a detached staff member will be maintained during the period of redeployment.

19.3.3 Wherever possible, the University will endeavour to redeploy staff into a position equal to the staff member’s substantive position at the time they were declared detached. 19.3.4 The University will allocate suitable temporary work to the detached staff member. Wherever possible, the staff member will continue to work at the same work value/classification level during the period of detachment/redeployment.

19.3.5 If a staff member elects to be redeployed in accordance with Clause 19.1.2 (iii), they may, at a later date elect to be made redundant at any time during the 8 week period mentioned in Clause 19.1.2 (iii) above. Should this occur they will receive a payment in accordance with Clause 19.4.1. For the avoidance of doubt, this entitlement is not affected by employment external to the University.

19.3.6 Where a staff member has chosen to exercise the right of preference of employment for a particular position in reference to Clause 19.3.1, a Selection Committee will determine the suitability of any applicant for redeployment to the position on the basis of the selection criteria. The Committee will recommend one of the following options:

(i) that the position be offered to the staff member (or the preferred applicant, where more than one detached staff member applies). The Committee may decide the applicant should be given 3 months appropriate training to acquire skills for the position;

(ii) redeployment for a trial period of 3 months, with training where the applicant lacks relevant and related experience in a similar work field. The Director will review the redeployment at the end of 3 months and either confirm the appointment (with further training if deemed necessary) or, if either the Director or the staff member considers the trial is unsuccessful, discuss further options for redeployment with the staff member; and/or

19.3.7 In relation to Clause 19.3.6 (iii), staff not successful in being redeployed to an available position will have access to the Inquiry Officer procedure - Clause 62.

19.3.8 During the redeployment period, the staff member:

19.3.9 The career transition plan will be developed within the following guidelines:

(i) all elements of the plan will realistically contribute to improved likelihood of the individual achieving their career objective;

(ii) all costs associated with the plan will be incurred within 6 months of the staff member becoming detached (i.e. any development activities will only be supported for 6 months but this may include costs after the staff member has left the University’s employment);

(iii) the total cost of the career transition plan supported by the University will be the equivalent of up to 18 weeks’ base salary of the staff member;

(iv) where the staff member is successfully redeployed into another position, the career transition plan will cease;

(v) the career transition plan and the associated costs will be approved by the Director People and Workforce Strategy prior to implementation.

19.4 Redundancy

19.4.1 If separation or successful redeployment has not occurred within the redeployment period, the staff member will become redundant and be provided with a redundancy package which comprises:

(i) 26 weeks salary; plus

(ii) 2 weeks salary for each year of service completed at the University, up to a combined maximum of 52 weeks; and

(ii) the immediate provision of a redundancy package as outlined in Clause 19.4.1.
19.5 Payments made under this clause will be calculated at the staff member’s substantive salary level at the date of separation.

PART E: SEPARATION FROM EMPLOYMENT

20.0 RESIGNATION AND TERMINATION

Resignation

20.1 A staff member, other than a casual staff member, may resign from the University by giving such notice as may be specified in the staff member’s contract of employment, or where not specified:

20.2 The University will not unreasonably refuse a request by a staff member to reduce the period of notice.

20.3 Community Music Teachers or casual staff members engaged for 12 weeks or more will give 2 weeks notice of resignation unless a lesser period is mutually agreed with the Director.

20.4 Termination of employment will occur as provided in this Agreement. The following clauses set out the procedures that may lead to termination of employment:

20.6 If the staff member is over 45 years old at the time of the notice and has completed at least 2 years of continuous service with the University the staff member will receive an additional 1 week's notice or payment in lieu.

20.7 The notice periods at Clauses 20.5 and 20.6 do not apply to a staff member who is terminated on the grounds of serious misconduct where termination will be without notice.

20.8 The employment of a casual staff member may be terminated by the University by the giving of 1 hour’s notice, or the minimum period of engagement, whichever is the greater.

20.9 Community Music Teachers or casual staff members engaged for 12 weeks or more must be given 2 weeks notice, or payment in lieu of such notice, should the University wish to terminate their employment.

21.0 ABANDONMENT OF EMPLOYMENT

21.1 Where a staff member has been absent from duty for a continuous period of 5 working days without advice to their supervisor or the approval of the University, the following will apply:

(i) The University will make reasonable attempts to contact the staff member (including a registered letter), using their most currently available contact details, requiring the staff member to provide an explanation for the absence.

(ii) The staff member will be on unauthorised leave without pay for the period of the absence.

(iii) If there was reasonable cause for the absence, the staff member may apply for an appropriate form of leave to cover the absence.

(iv) If the staff member does not establish to the satisfaction of the appropriate Deputy Vice-Chancellor that there was a reasonable cause for the absence, and the staff member seeks to resume duty, the matter may be dealt with as possible misconduct under Misconduct/Serious Misconduct – Clause 12.

(v) If the staff member fails to respond within 10 working days of the date of the registered letter under Clause 21.1 (i) (that is, a minimum of 15 total working days absence), the staff member will be deemed to have abandoned their employment. In this case, the staff member will be entitled only to payment up to the last day of attendance for duty or authorised leave.

22.0 INCAPACITY

22.1 Where a staff member’s capacity to perform their duties is in doubt due to ill health, the University will consider mechanisms such as reasonable adjustment and appropriate use of leave options to support the staff member’s return to full duties within a reasonable timeframe. Consideration will be given as to whether the duties may be permanently modified. This process will be undertaken in consultation with the staff member.

22.2 Where issues of incapacity cannot reasonably be resolved under Clause 22.1, the University may require the staff member to undergo a medical examination by a medical practitioner chosen by the University at the expense of the University.
22.3 The University will provide the staff member with written notice of the medical appointment at least 1 month prior to the date of the appointment. The staff member and the University may agree to a different notice period.

22.4 Where, prior to the expiry of the period of notice, the staff member applies to the staff member’s superannuation fund for ill-health retirement or temporary disability benefit under the rules of the superannuation fund, the requirement for a medical examination under Clause 22.2 will lapse and subject to Clause 22.5, no further action will be taken under this clause.

22.5 Where the superannuation fund decides that the staff member is capable of resuming work and the Vice-Chancellor elects to dispute this decision, the Vice-Chancellor may direct the staff member to attend a medical examination in accordance with Clause 22.2 and then proceed in accordance with the remainder of this clause.

22.6 A copy of the medical report made by the medical practitioner required under Clause 22.2 will be made available by the University to the staff member concerned on receipt, or to the staff member’s doctor if medical advice is given to that effect.

22.7 If the medical report states that the staff member is or will be able to perform the inherent requirements of their substantive position within 6 months of the date of the report (Clause 22.6), action in relation to this clause will cease, subject to the staff member resuming their duties on or before the expiration of that period. The University will consider the medical report and any advice from the staff member’s treating doctor in constructing an appropriate return to work plan. If the staff member does not resume duties within the 6 month period, the Vice-Chancellor will consider any further medical report(s) and may:

(i) notify the staff member of the decision to terminate their employment by reason of ill health; or

(ii) extend the period for a further period of no more than 3 months. Should the staff member not resume duty in that period, the Vice-Chancellor may notify the staff member of the decision to terminate their employment by reason of ill-health.

22.8 If the medical report states that the staff member is unable to perform the inherent requirements of their substantive position and is unlikely to be able to resume those duties within 6 months of the date of the report referred to in Clause 22.6, the staff member may, within 10 working days of receipt of the medical report, request a review of the medical report.

22.9 The review of the medical report will be conducted by an independent medical practitioner with the relevant area of expertise, agreed upon by both the University and the staff member or their representative. If the parties are unable to agree on a suitable medical practitioner, then the University will request the President of the New South Wales branch of the Australian Medical Association to nominate a suitable medical practitioner to carry out the review.

22.10 If the review under Clause 22.9 indicates that the staff member is able to resume duty within 6 months from the date of the initial report referred to in Clause 22.6, action will be taken in accordance with Clause 22.7.

22.11 If a review of the medical report is not requested by the staff member or if the review confirms a finding of incapacity to resume duty, the Vice-Chancellor may notify the staff member of the decision to terminate their employment by reason of incapacity. The notice of termination due to incapacity, or pay instead of notice, will be 6 months.

22.12 In making an assessment as to whether a staff member is unable to perform his or her duties and is unlikely to be able to resume them within a reasonable period, the medical practitioner or panel of medical practitioners appointed pursuant to this clause will, as far as practicable, apply the standards used by the staff member’s superannuation scheme, if any, in determining qualification for the payment of a disablement pension or other similar benefit.

22.13 The provisions of this clause do not override New South Wales Workers Compensation legislation.

(i) staff members have at least 10 consecutive hours off duty between the work of successive days;

(ii) if the staff member has not had at least 10 consecutive hours off duty between the completion of overtime and the commencement of ordinary duty, the staff member will not be required to report for duty until at least 10 hours has elapsed since the completion of overtime;

(iii) if, on the instructions of the University, a staff member resumes or continues work, in terms of 35.4 (ii) above, without having had 10 consecutive hours off duty, they will be paid at overtime rates until released from duty. The staff member will be entitled to be absent until they have had 10 consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence.

35.5 Where a staff member has been instructed to report for duty for pre-arranged overtime on a day which they would not have been required to work and on reporting for duty on that day finds that no overtime is available, the staff member will be paid 3 hours overtime at the overtime rate for that day.

35.6 Each day’s overtime will stand alone and will be calculated to the nearest quarter of an hour.

35.7 Staff members called back for work after leaving the University’s premises will be paid for a minimum of 4 hours at the appropriate overtime rate for that period. Each call will stand alone. This clause will not apply in cases where it is customary for a staff member to return to the University’s premises to perform pre-arranged overtime or where the overtime is continuous (subject to a reasonable meal break) with the completion or commencement of normal working time.

35.8 Where a part-time staff member works more hours per week than their ordinary part-time hours of work per week, but not in excess of the ordinary hours of duty for a full-time staff member in the same classification, the staff member will be paid at the ordinary rate of pay for each additional hour so worked.
35.9 Where a Head Teacher is required to perform overtime, the calculation of the payment of overtime will not exceed the maximum salary rate for Teachers under the relevant salary scale in Schedule 1.

35.10 Where overtime is worked in accordance with this clause a staff member may request to be granted Time Off In Lieu of Overtime Payment (T.O.I.L.). T.O.I.L:

(i) must be agreed by the Director prior to the overtime being worked;

(ii) will be taken at a time mutually convenient to the University and the staff member;

(iii) is calculated as the equivalent of the full overtime payment in hours as specified in Clause 35.3 which would have been payable as overtime;

(iv) can be accrued on a quarterly basis;

(v) when not taken within a 3 month period, the University may, with reasonable notice, direct the staff member to take the time off in lieu or the staff member will be paid at the applicable overtime rate; and

(vi) can be accumulated by a staff member to a maximum of 35 hours.

36.0 RELIEVING ALLOWANCE

36.1 A relieving allowance will be paid to a staff member for relieving in an existing position which is at a higher classification level, where the staff member performs the duties for a period of at least 5 consecutive working days.

36.2 The allowance will be an amount equal to the difference between the minimum salary of the higher classified position and the salary that the staff member is receiving in the position they substantively occupy, or a percentage of that amount if partial duties are performed.

36.3 The staff member will be paid the relieving allowance rate during periods of personal leave, annual leave and long service leave provided that periods of such leave are reasonable and within the period of relieving.

37.0 HIGHER DUTIES ALLOWANCE

37.1 A higher duties allowance may be paid where a staff member is required to perform duties at a higher classification for a fixed period of time or perform tasks related to a specific task or project.

37.2 This allowance will be paid where:

(i) the work value is clearly greater than the substantive level of the staff member; and

(ii) those duties comprise a significant proportion of the work undertaken by the staff member for a period of at least 5 consecutive working days.

37.3 The allowance is to be determined by reference to the relevant descriptors and relevant pay points as well as the substantive salary level of the staff member.

37.4 The staff member will be paid the higher duties allowance rate during periods of personal leave, annual leave and long service leave provided that periods of such leave are reasonable and within the period of higher duties.

37.5 Higher duties arrangements will be approved by the appropriate delegated officer.

38.0 WORK RELATED TRAVEL

38.1 Each staff member will have a primary place of work.
38.2 Where a staff member is directed to undertake work away from their primary place of work, including duties performed either within or outside Australia, all duties will be treated as time worked for the purposes of this Agreement including travelling time.

38.3 A staff member working away from their primary place of work who is required to travel outside their ordinary hours of work is entitled to be paid at the ordinary hourly rate for the time taken in travelling, or to take time off in lieu on an equivalent basis, by agreement between the staff member and their supervisor.

38.4 Where a staff member is required to work away from their primary place of work for all or part of a day, the period of travel time to be counted as work time will be the difference between their usual travelling time from home to their primary place of work and return, and the total amount of time spent travelling that day.

38.5 A staff member who travels overseas on a journey in excess of 8 hours will have at least 10 consecutive hours off duty between the end of the journey and the commencement of authorised duties.

38.6 Staff directed to travel on official University business will receive travel entitlements as outlined in the University Policy and Procedures.

PART H: EMPLOYMENT ARRANGEMENTS

39.0 CATEGORIES OF EMPLOYMENT

39.1 Teaching staff will be employed in the following categories:

(i) ‘Continuing Employment’ means all employment that is not contingent, fixed-term, or casual employment, and for which there is no set date for the employment to cease.

(ii) Contingent Employment’ means employment provided from identifiable funding external to the University for the life of a specific task or project or for the duration of the funding. Such employment has no fixed end date and the contract is not terminable by the University, other than during a probationary period, or for unsatisfactory performance, or for serious misconduct (in which case the procedures and notice in Probation - Clause 9, Unsatisfactory Performance - Clause 11, Misconduct/Serious Misconduct – Clause 12 apply), or by the occurrence of the contingency.

(iii) ‘Fixed-Term Employment’ means employment for a specified term, for which the instrument of engagement will specify the starting and finishing dates and for which during the term of employment the contract is not terminable by the University, other than during a probationary period, or for unsatisfactory performance, or for serious misconduct (in which case the procedures and notice in Probation - Clause 9, Unsatisfactory Performance - Clause 11, Misconduct/Serious Misconduct - Clause 12 apply); or where the work is no longer required to be undertaken, in which case the fixed term staff member is entitled to payment equivalent to either 6 months salary or the balance of the contract, whichever is the lesser.

The minimum duration of a fixed term contract for a staff member will usually be 12 months. A staff member may be employed on a fixed term basis for less than 12 months where exceptional circumstances justify this. Generally, fixed term employment will be in 6 month units where possible.

(iv) ‘Casual Employment’ means employment by the hour and paid on an hourly basis that includes a loading of 25% in lieu of benefits in this Agreement that are not provided to casual staff. Casual employment may be on an hourly or sessional basis.

Information for Staff Appointment

39.2 At the time of appointment the University will provide the staff member with an instrument of appointment that stipulates:
(i) the type of employment, the duties, the primary place of employment, the reporting relationships, the superannuation scheme and the University's contribution level;

(ii) the classification level and salary of the staff member on commencement of the employment, and the hours or the fraction of full-time hours to be worked;

(iii) for contingent employment, specify the contingency;

(iv) for a fixed-term staff member, the period of the employment with a starting and a finishing date;

(v) for a casual staff member, the duties required, the number of hours required, the rate of pay; and a statement that any additional duties required during the term will be paid for;

(vi) for a staff member on probation, the length and terms of the probation; and

(vii) other main conditions of employment, including any right to apply for conversion.

39.3 All staff members will be entitled to a written statement of service stating the period of employment and the duties performed.

39.4 Staff members will be provided with access to office space; photocopying facilities; a telephone; a location for receiving mail; and appropriate computer facilities including email and internet access.

Additional Employment

39.5 Nothing in this Agreement prevents a staff member from engaging in additional work with the University as a casual staff member for work unrelated to, or identifiable separate from, the staff member's normal duties.

39.6 Additional employment must not adversely affect the discharge of the staff member's primary duties and responsibilities.

Full-time and Part-time Employment

39.7 Continuing, fixed-term and contingent employment may be on a full-time or a part-time basis. Part-time entitlements are paid on a pro rata basis calculated according to the fraction of full-time hours worked.

39.8 Where a part-time staff member agrees to vary their contract weekly hours of work in the same or substantially similar position, their existing contract hours will be varied accordingly.

39.9 The staffing ratios for continuing, contingent, fixed-term and casual employment will be reviewed each March and August using the HECS Census dates as an indicator. The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) will report by 30 September each year, to the Teachers Consultative Committee, taking into account the need for flexibility generated by peaks and troughs imposed by student intakes, staffing arrangements, operational performance and future needs. The report will include recommendations on the proportion of continuing to contingent to fixed-term to casual employment.

Notice at Expiry of Contingent and Fixed Term Employment

39.10 The University will provide:

(i) to a contingent staff member a written notice invoking the contingency and the University's intention to discontinue the position.

(ii) to a fixed-term staff member a written notice of the expiry of the contract and the University's intention to:

(a) continue the position with the same or substantially similar duties on a fixed-term basis;
(b) continue the position with the same or substantially similar duties on a continuing basis; or

(c) discontinue the position.

39.11 The notice under 39.10 will be the greater of:

(i) any entitlement to notice prescribed in the staff member’s contract of employment; or

(ii) 4 weeks notice.

39.12 In addition to this notice, a staff member over the age of 45 years at the time of the giving of notice and with not less than 2 years continuous service will be entitled to an additional week's notice.

39.13 Where the position is discontinued, the University may make payment in lieu of notice for the whole or part of the notice period.

39.14 Where, because of circumstances relating to the provision of specific funding to support employment, external to the University and beyond its control, the University is not reasonably able to give the notice required by this clause, it will be sufficient compliance with this clause if the University:

(i) advises those circumstances to the staff member in writing at the latest time at which the notice would otherwise be required to be given; and

(ii) gives notice to the staff member at the earliest practicable date thereafter.

Offer of Further Employment

39.15 Other than in exceptional circumstances, at the time of giving the notice required by Clause 39.10 (ii), where that decision is to continue the position with the same or substantially similar duties, the incumbent will be offered further employment in the position provided that:

(i) the incumbent was employed in that position or a substantially similar position through a competitive and open selection process;

(ii) the incumbent has performed satisfactorily in that position;

(iii) where the staff member refuses any reasonable offer of further employment there will be no entitlement to severance pay.

Right to Apply For Conversion to Continuing Employment

39.16 Where further employment is offered under Clause 39.15 and the staff member was employed in the same or substantially similar position through a competitive and open selection process and has performed at a satisfactory level, the staff member may apply for conversion to continuing employment on the same salary and classification.

39.17 Staff who have been employed on a contingent or fixed-term contract for 12 months or more may apply for conversion to continuing employment on the same salary and classification where the staff member was employed in the relevant position through a competitive and open selection process and has performed at a satisfactory level.

39.18 The University may refuse conversion on reasonable grounds.

39.19 The University will determine an application for conversion either by offering conversion to continuing appointment or by rejecting the application, and will provide a written response, including reasons, to the staff member within 8 weeks of the application.

39.20 A staff member must not be engaged and re-engaged nor have their hours reduced in order to avoid any obligation under this clause.
Severance Pay

39.21 Where the staff member seeks to continue the employment, severance pay is payable on the following basis:

(i) On termination of a contingent contract of employment; or

(ii) On termination of a fixed term contract of employment where:

   (a) the staff member is employed on a second or subsequent fixed term contract and the same or substantially similar duties are no longer required by the University; or

   (b) the staff member is employed on a fixed term contract and the duties performed continue to be required but another person has been appointed, or is to be appointed, to carry out the same or substantially similar duties.

39.22 Severance payments will be calculated on the average number of weekly hours worked for the duration of the contingent, or fixed-term employment.

39.23 The following severance arrangements apply to staff members employed on a fixed-term basis and staff members employed on a contingent basis for 10 years or less.

39.24 Where a staff member is employed on a contingent employment contract for a period in excess of 10 years, a severance payment based on 2 weeks for every year of continuous service will apply instead of the severance payment set out in Clause 39.23, up to a maximum of 52 weeks.

Deferral of Severance Payment

39.25 Where the University advises a staff member in writing that further employment may be offered within 6 weeks of the expiry of a period of contingent or fixed-term employment, the University may defer payment of severance benefits for a maximum period of 6 weeks from the expiry of the period of fixed-term or contingent employment. Where an offer of employment which is substantially similar is made within this period, no severance payment will be made.

Breaks in Service

39.26 For the purpose of this Agreement and for the purpose of determining which provisions under this Agreement apply to contingent and fixed-term staff members, breaks between contingent or fixed-term appointments of up to 2 months will not constitute a break in continuous service. A break between contingent or fixed-term contracts, where the second or subsequent contingent or fixed-term contract is for the same position, will not constitute a break in service if that break covers the summer period between main semesters. The lengths of and breaks between contingent or fixed-term contracts will not be structured to avoid obligations with regard to severance payments.

39.27 Periods of approved unpaid leave will not count for service, but will not constitute breaks in service for the purposes of this clause.
CASUAL EMPLOYMENT

39.28 Casual staff members will be paid according to the duties undertaken. Casual rates are described in Schedule 1 - Rates and Allowances. These rates include the casual loading.

39.29 The University will pay casual staff members within 22 days from submitting a completed valid claim for payment to the appropriate representative as identified by the University to the staff member.

Access to Professional Development

39.30 The University will provide casual staff members, other than those employed on an occasional or ad hoc basis, with adequate and appropriate access to professional development opportunities.

Review of casual employment

39.31 The review nominated in Clause 39.9 will include a review of casual staff. The report of the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) will include recommendations on the utilisation of casual and/or sessional employment.

Casual Staff – Right to Apply for Conversion

39.32 Casual staff may apply for conversion to continuing, contingent or fixed-term employment where the staff member has been employed on a regular and systematic basis for either:

(i) at least an average of 50% of the ordinary weekly hours that would have been worked by a full-time employee during the preceding 12 month period; or

(ii) over the immediately preceding period of at least 24 months.

39.33 The University may refuse conversion on reasonable grounds.

39.34 The University will determine an application for conversion either by offering conversion to a continuing, contingent or fixed-term appointment or by rejecting the application, and will provide a written response, with reasons, to the staff member. An offer of conversion will indicate the hours and pattern of work, which will be consistent with the staff member’s casual engagement.

39.35 A staff member must not be engaged and re-engaged nor have their hours reduced in order to avoid any obligation under this clause.

40.0 ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER EMPLOYMENT

40.1 The University acknowledges that Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people are two distinct racial groups within the term “Indigenous Australians”. For the purposes of this clause, “Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander” or “Indigenous” person means any person who is of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander descent who is recognised and accepted as such by other Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander peoples and who identifies as an Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander.

Areas such as workload, staff development, promotion and reclassification will recognise Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander values and academic achievements and community achievements including the consideration of cultural standards.

40.8 To facilitate the implementation of this clause, the University will maintain and continue to staff the position of Indigenous Employment Coordinator as an identified Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander position.

40.9 In order to implement the terms of the Indigenous Employment Clause, the parties agree to have an Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander NTEU representative on an Indigenous employment committee. A key role of the committee will be to be informed on the progress of indigenous employment at the University and to make recommendations to BATSIET and the University on how Indigenous employment outcomes can be improved and progressed during the life of this Agreement.

40.10 Should it be apparent to the University or the NTEU at any stage that the target will not be met, or probably will not be met, the parties will confer, at a meeting of the Indigenous employment committee to be held within one month of a request, with a view to determining what measures must be taken to ensure that the target for 2015 will be met.

40.17 Indigenous staff on fixed-term contracts will be supported in seeking alternative employment opportunities within the University prior to the expiry of their contract.

40.18 The University in conjunction with the Indigenous Employment Coordinator and the Indigenous staff member will develop a strategy to assist the staff member to seek alternative employment opportunities within the University. The University will undertake all reasonable measures to ensure ongoing employment of Indigenous staff members is promoted.

The Wollotuka Institute

PART I: FLEXIBLE WORKING ARRANGEMENTS

46.0 REQUESTS FOR FLEXIBLE WORKING ARRANGEMENTS

46.1 The right of staff members to request flexible working arrangements in certain circumstances is prescribed in the National Employment Standards under the Fair Work Act 2009.

Note: The following table summarises the NES provisions.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>REQUESTS FOR FLEXIBLE WORKING ARRANGEMENTS AND THE NES</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A staff member may request that the University agree to a change in working arrangements (e.g. changes in hours of work, patterns of work or location of work) where they:</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>- are the parent, or have responsibility for the care, of a child who is of school age or younger; or</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>- are a carer (within the meaning of the Carer Recognition Act 2010); or</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>- have a disability; or</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>- are 55 or older; or</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>- are experiencing violence from a member of their family; or</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>- provide care or support to a member of their immediate family, or household, who requires care or support because they are experiencing violence from their family.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Staff members are entitled to make the request if they have completed at least 12 months of continuous service with the University immediately before making the request.

Casual staff members are entitled to make a request if:

- they have been employed by the University on a regular and systematic basis for a sequence of periods of employment of at least 12 months immediately before making the request; and
- there is a reasonable expectation of further employment by the University on a regular and systematic basis.

Request by Staff Member

The request by a staff member for a change in working arrangements must:

(a) be made in writing; and
(b) set out details of the change sought and the reasons for the change.

Responding to the Request

The University must give the staff member a written response to the request within 21 days, stating whether the University grants or refuses the request.

If the University refuses the request the written response must include details of the reasons for the refusal.

The University may refuse the request only on reasonable business grounds as specified in the NES.
PART J: LEAVE AND HOLIDAYS

47.0 ANNUAL LEAVE

47.1 A staff member, other than a casual, accrues annual leave on a daily basis at the rate of 20 working days per annum (full-time rate).

47.2 Approval of annual leave, not exceeding accruals, will be by agreement between the staff member and the University.

Payment of Annual Leave

47.3 Whilst on annual leave, at the ordinary rate of pay that would have been paid had the staff member not been on leave, excluding any ordinary overtime or penalty rate that would have applied.

47.4 On termination accrued annual leave will be paid at the ordinary rate of pay at the date of termination.

47.5 In the event of death, payment of accrued annual leave owed to the staff member at the date of death will be paid to the staff member’s estate.

Impact of Other Leave

47.6 Any period of leave without pay greater than 5 working days within a 12 month period, to be calculated from a staff member’s anniversary of employment with the University, will not count as service for the purpose of calculating annual leave.

47.7 Annual leave accrued whilst a staff member is on any period of leave on reduced pay will accrue at a proportionate rate calculated in accordance with the fraction that the reduced pay bears to the staff member’s ordinary working hours.

47.8 Where a staff member on a period of approved annual leave becomes eligible for personal leave because of illness, injury or incapacity, for a period of 1 week or more and produces a satisfactory medical certificate, they will have an equivalent period of annual leave re-credited. This provision does not apply to a staff member on annual leave immediately prior to retirement or resignation.

Direction to Take Leave

47.9 The University may direct a staff member to take, at such time as is convenient to the working of the University, annual leave for which the staff member is eligible, but as far as practicable the wishes of the staff member concerned will be taken into consideration when fixing the time for the taking of annual leave.

47.10 If a staff member reaches an annual leave accrual of 40 days and a leave plan cannot be agreed upon, the University will direct the staff member to take 10 days annual leave within 1 month of notification by the University.

Annual Leave Loading

47.11 Staff members, other than casuals, will be paid an annual leave loading at 17.5% of the ordinary pay multiplied by 4 weeks.

47.12 Annual leave loading will be paid each December at the ordinary rate of pay on the date of payment and is subject to retrospective adjustments where a retrospective pay increase is awarded after this date.

47.13 Where a staff member commences after 1 December in any year annual leave loading will be paid on a pro rata basis calculated on the completed months of service.

47.14 Annual leave loading is payable on termination as follows:
(i) On termination for any reason, payment is to be calculated on a pro rata basis at the ordinary rate of pay, as at the date of termination.

(ii) In the event of the death of a staff member, payment is to be calculated on a pro rata basis and at the ordinary rate of pay, as at the date of death. Payment will be made to the staff member’s estate.

48.0 LONG SERVICE LEAVE

48.1 The provisions in relation to the accrual and payment of long service leave entitlements for staff are as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Staff members, other than casual staff members</th>
<th>Casual staff members</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>48.1.1 A staff member will have an entitlement to long service leave as follows:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(i) At the completion of 10 years service (whether continuous or broken);</td>
<td>3 months leave on ordinary pay.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(ii) More than 10 years service, but less than 15 years service (whether continuous or broken); and</td>
<td>9 calendar days paid leave per year of service for each year of service between 10 and 15 years.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(iii) After 15 years of service (whether continuous or broken).</td>
<td>15 calendar days paid leave per year of service for each year of service over 15 years.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>48.1.2 A staff member will be eligible for paid long service leave as follows:</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(i) After 10 years service (whether continuous or broken);</td>
<td>Whilst on approved long service leave or on termination for any reason, including death.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(ii) Where service with the University is less than 10 years, but greater than 5 years (whether continuous or broken);</td>
<td>On a pro rata basis on termination, where terminated by the University for any reason other than the staff member’s serious and wilful misconduct, or by the staff member on account of illness, incapacity or domestic or other pressing necessity, or by reason of the death of the staff member.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(iii) Where service with the University is less than 5 years; or</td>
<td>NIL</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>(iv) In lieu of leave.</td>
<td>Not applicable</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Long service leave will be paid as follows:

- (i) Whilst on leave;
  - At the rate of pay that would have been paid had the staff member not been on leave, excluding any ordinary overtime or penalty rate that would be applied.

- (ii) On termination;
  - At the staff member’s ordinary rate of pay as at the date of termination.

- (iii) On death;
  - To the staff member’s estate.

- (iv) As payment in lieu; or
  - Not applicable

- (v) For a staff member with at least 10 years service, who has worked a mix of ordinary hours of work during their employment with the University and who has an accumulation less than that prescribed in 48.1.1 (i).
  - The staff member may elect to take either a reduced period of leave at their ordinary rate of pay or the full period of leave, in which case the staff member will be paid their ordinary rate of pay as at the date of taking long service leave or the average ordinary remuneration earned by the staff member in the preceding 5 year period, whichever is the greater.

Impact of Leave Without Pay

48.2 For the purpose of determining a staff member’s long service leave entitlement, leave without pay will affect the accrual of long service leave as follows:

- (i) For staff members with less than 10 years service, any period of leave without pay greater than 5 days in any 12 month period, will generally not count as service;

- (ii) For staff members with 10 years or more service, any period of leave without pay of 6 months or less will count as service;

- (iii) Where an employer other than the University pays to the University an appropriate amount to cover the staff member’s accrual of long service leave during the period of leave without pay, the period of leave without pay will count as service.
Impact of Personal Leave

48.3 Where a staff member on approved long service leave becomes eligible for personal leave for a period of 5 working days or more, the staff member will have an equivalent period of long service leave recredited, subject to providing satisfactory evidence to support the claim for personal leave.

Impact of Other Leave

48.4 All paid leave will count as service for the purpose of calculating a staff member’s long service leave entitlement. Long service leave accrued whilst a staff member is on any period of leave on reduced pay will accrue at a proportionate rate calculated in accordance with the fraction that the reduced pay bears to the staff member’s ordinary working hours.

Leave Plans

48.5 The parties to this Agreement actively support the utilisation of long service leave in accordance with this clause so as to:

(i) promote the health and welfare of members of staff; and

(ii) allow effective management of leave liabilities.

48.6 A leave plan is to be developed and agreed upon between a staff member and their supervisor. In developing the plan, a staff member is entitled to take long service leave at the time of their choosing, except where there are compelling operational reasons not to grant the leave at the requested time. The leave plan is to achieve the following:

(i) the maximum accrual held by a staff member at any time will generally be 3 months of long service leave.

(ii) flexibility for staff to accrue additional leave up to a maximum of 5 years worth of annual accrual (excluding the 3 months referred to in Clause 48.6 (i)) where the plan commits to an extended absence on long service leave, subject to the following provision;

(iii) staff members who are eligible to take long service leave and already have a 3 month long service leave accrual, will generally utilise their further annual accrual within the year it accrues with the exception of the initial entitlement after 10 years service.

48.7 Staff on substantial periods of long service leave will have their positions backfilled unless suitable alternative arrangements are made to address workload.

48.8 Should a dispute arise in connection with a long service leave plan, the staff member may seek a review in accordance with Inquiry Officer – Clause 62.

Direction to Take Leave

48.9 Where a staff member does not have an agreed leave plan, as per Clause 48.6, and their long service leave accrual is in excess of 6 months, the University may give the staff member written notice to take up to 3 months of long service leave, at a time convenient to the needs of the University, provided that:

(i) the University will give the staff member at least 6 months written notice of the date from which leave must commence;

(ii) the staff member will not be required to take long service leave within 12 months of the notified date of retirement of the staff member;

(iii) the minimum period of leave the University can require a staff member to take will be 6 weeks; and

(iv) the University will not require the staff member to take a further period of long service leave for a period of 2 years after the end of that period of leave.
48.10 Where a staff member and supervisor develop an agreed leave plan, as per Clause 48.6, within 2 weeks of the staff member’s written notice to take leave, a direction under Clause 48.9 to take long service leave will lapse.

48.11 Where a staff member is directed to take long service leave, the University will backfill their position by temporary replacement, unless suitable alternative arrangements are made.

Leave on Half Pay

48.12 A staff member may choose to take long service leave at half pay, which will reduce the accrued long service leave entitlement by half the period of long service leave taken.

Leave on Double Pay

48.13 A staff member may choose to take long service leave at double pay, which will reduce the accrued long service leave entitlement by double the period of long service leave taken.

Prior Service

48.14 Full-time and part-time continuous service by a staff member with any institute of higher education in Australia, as defined in Schedule 1 of the Higher Education Act (NSW) 2001, will count for determining the staff member’s long service leave accrual with the University, allowing for long service leave taken or paid out by the previous institute of higher education.

48.15 A break in service of 2 months or less between the cessation of employment with the previous institute of higher education and the commencement of employment with the University, will not interrupt continuity of service but will not count as service. A break in service of more than 2 months will break continuity of service and will not count as service.

Long Service Leave Act

48.16 The provisions of the Long Service Leave Act (NSW) 1955, as amended, will apply to those matters not covered by the provisions of this clause.

49.0 PERSONAL LEAVE

Personal Leave Entitlement

49.1 A staff member, other than a casual staff member, is entitled to take up to 25 days paid personal leave in a 12 month period in the event of the following:

(i) sickness, which is illness, injury or incapacity;
(ii) caring for a family member/member of the household suffering from an illness, injury or incapacity;
(iii) compassionate needs;
(iv) bereavement;
(v) unforeseen emergency;
(vi) moving residence;
(vii) attending significant cultural events of relevance to the staff member; or
(viii) attending to matters arising from domestic violence situations, as per Clause 58.

49.2 A staff member, other than a casual staff member, is entitled, as part of personal leave, to accrue 15 days sick leave per year of service less the number of sick leave days taken.
49.3 Staff members, other than casual staff members, who exhaust their 25 days personal leave entitlement in a 12 month period, may access their accrued sick leave entitlement for any period of sick leave occurring within the same 12 month period.

49.4 A casual staff member is entitled to not be available to attend work or to leave work for up to 2 days per occasion for personal leave related matters. A casual staff member is not entitled to any payment for the period of non-attendance owing to such an absence.

49.5 Personal leave may be taken for periods of 1 hour or greater.

Notice and Evidence Requirements

49.6 For the purpose of this clause, “family member” includes:

(i) a spouse or partner of the staff member, including same sex partner, former partner, de facto partner or a former de facto partner;

(ii) a child (including an adopted child, a step child or foster child), parent (including a foster parent and/or legal guardian), grandparent, grandchild or sibling of the staff member or spouse or partner of the staff member; or

(iii) any other close relative of the staff member, where “close relative” means a person related by blood, marriage or affinity, with whom the staff member has a significant relationship, or any other person with whom the staff member has a close and significant relationship.

49.7 Staff members will, wherever practicable, give their supervisor prior notice of the need to take leave, the reasons for taking leave and the estimated length of absence. In relation to leave taken for the circumstances specified in Clause 49.1(ii) - (iii), the staff member will also advise of the nature of the relationship involved, and where appropriate, the nature of the care involved.

49.8 If it is not possible for a staff member to give prior notice of the absence, the staff member will notify the supervisor of the absence as soon as practicable, stating the details outlined in Clause 49.7.

49.9 If any absence under these provisions exceeds three consecutive working days, the staff member applying for the leave will provide satisfactory evidence, such as a medical certificate or a statutory declaration as to the nature of circumstances involved and stating that the staff member is/was unable to attend duty on the days in respect of which the staff member seeks the personal leave.

49.10 Wherever possible, staff should provide evidence of the need for accessing personal leave.

49.11 Where evidence of inappropriate personal leave usage patterns by a staff member emerges, the University may either:

(i) require documentary evidence for each future period of leave for a specified period of time, but for no longer than 12 months; or

(ii) where justified, refer the matter to the Unsatisfactory Performance – Clause 11 or Misconduct/Serious Misconduct – Clause 12 procedures.

Regular or Extended Periods of Personal Leave

49.12 Except in the case of a staff member who is sick, where the staff member anticipates the absences may be regular or for extended periods, the staff member and the supervisor should explore alternative means of balancing operational needs and family and personal responsibilities, including home based work, part-time work or job sharing. In the case of a staff member who is sick, they may choose to explore alternative working arrangements with their supervisor.
50.0 COMPASSIONATE LEAVE

Entitlement to Compassionate Leave

50.1 Staff members who have exhausted all of their Personal Leave are entitled to 2 days of Compassionate Leave for each permissible occasion when a member of the staff member’s family or a member of the staff member’s household:

(i) contracts or develops a personal illness that poses a serious threat to his or her life; or

(ii) sustains a personal injury that poses a serious threat to his or her life; or

(iii) dies.

50.2 If a staff member, other than a casual staff member, takes a period of Compassionate Leave, it will be at the staff member’s base rate of pay for the ordinary hours of work in the period.

50.3 For casual staff members, Compassionate Leave is unpaid leave.

Taking Compassionate Leave

50.4 A staff member may take Compassionate Leave:

(i) to spend time with the member of the staff member’s immediate family or household who has contracted or developed the personal illness, or sustained the personal injury, referred to in Clause 50.1 (i) or (ii); or

(ii) after the death of the member of the staff member’s immediate family or household referred to in Clause 50.1 (iii).

50.5 A staff member may take Compassionate Leave for a particular permissible occasion as:

(i) a single continuous 2 day period; or

(ii) 2 separate periods of 1 day each; or

(iii) any separate periods to which the staff member and the University agree.

50.6 If the permissible occasion is the contraction or development of a personal illness, or the sustaining of a personal injury, the staff member may take the Compassionate Leave for that occasion at any time while the illness or injury persists.

50.7 Staff members will, wherever practicable, give their supervisor prior notice of the intention to take leave, the estimated length of absence, the nature of the relationship involved, and where appropriate, the nature of the illness or injury.

50.8 The staff member applying for the leave will provide satisfactory evidence, such as a medical certificate or a statutory declaration, which includes sufficient information to enable the University to be reasonably satisfied that the leave is being taken for a permissible occasion in circumstances specified in Clause 50.1.

51.0 PARENTAL LEAVE

51.1 Parental leave includes primary carer leave and partner leave and is granted in relation to the birth of a child or the adoption or fostering of a child of which the staff member is, or will be, the parent.

51.2 For the purposes of this clause:

(i) “Expected date of birth” means the date identified by appropriate certification to be the expected birth date;
(ii) “Partner” means the partner of the primary carer, which includes a spouse or de facto, including a same sex partner;

(iii) “Primary carer” means a person who has the primary responsibility for the care of a new born or newly adopted or fostered child and who physically cares for the child on a daily basis.

(iv) ‘Adopting or Fostering a Child’ relates to a child not older than 5 years, provided:
   (a) the child is not the child or step child of the staff member or the staff member’s partner; and
   (b) the child has not previously lived with the staff member for a continuous period of more than 6 months as at the proposed date of placement.

51.3 The University will not refuse employment or dismiss a staff member or take any other action that disadvantages a staff member, on the grounds of pregnancy, possible pregnancy, being on parental leave, or making a request for parental leave.

51.4 A staff member, other than a casual, may take other leave, including annual leave, long service leave or leave without pay in addition to parental leave.

51.5 Periods of parental leave will be regarded as service for incremental purposes. Paid parental leave will count for the purpose of annual leave accrual. Where paid parental leave is taken at a pro rata rate, annual leave will accrue proportionally. Parental leave without pay exceeding 5 working days will not count for the accrual of annual leave.

51.6 Parental leave without pay will count as service for long service leave purposes only where the staff member has completed 10 years service and provided that such parental leave without pay does not exceed 6 months. Absence on unpaid parental leave does not break continuity of service.

51.7 Supervisors and staff members are to make reasonable adjustments to work arrangements, where necessary.

51.8 A staff member may apply to the University to change the period of parental leave.

51.9 A staff member on parental leave as a primary carer is entitled to a further period of parental leave in relation to the birth, adoption or fostering of a subsequent child occurring during the initial period of parental leave. The conditions contained in this Clause apply to the subsequent period of parental leave but any remaining parental leave from the birth, adoption of fostering of the first child lapses when the new period of parental leave commences.

51.10 The parties agree to review the impact of any changes to the Federal Government’s Paid Parental Leave (PPL) Scheme.

Eligibility

51.11 A staff member, other than a current casual:
   (i) who has had employment with the University for a period of 12 months or more at the date of birth or of adoption/fostering, will be eligible for paid parental leave as defined in this clause; or

51.12 A casual staff member who is employed by the University immediately prior to the taking of leave will be eligible for parental leave without pay for a period of up to 52 weeks.

51.13 A staff member employed on a fixed-term or contingent contract of employment will cease to have an entitlement to parental leave upon the expiration of the contract.
51.14 A staff member who is on leave without pay (other than parental leave without pay) is not eligible for parental leave for the duration of the leave without pay. Eligibility for any paid leave entitlements will be assessed and may be applicable on a pro rata basis, if the staff member's scheduled return from leave without pay is within 26 weeks after the birth or date of adoption/fostering.

PARENTAL LEAVE (PRIMARY CARER)

51.15 Entitlements

(i) A staff member who gives birth or adopts or fosters a child and is the primary carer, is entitled to the equivalent of 26 weeks normal pay over a period of up to 52 weeks, to be taken as a block or blocks of any combination of full pay, pro rata pay or leave without pay.

(ii) Where a staff member has worked varied hours preceding paid parental leave, their parental leave entitlement will be based on the average hours worked in the 12 months immediately prior to commencement of the leave (excluding any period of leave immediately prior to the staff member commencing Parental Leave).

(iii) Notwithstanding Clause 51.15 (ii), if a staff member temporarily works less than their ordinary hours of work (Full-time or Part-time as applicable) for reasons associated with the pregnancy, paid parental leave entitlements will be based on the staff member's ordinary hours of work.

(iv) A prospective mother may commence parental leave up to 20 weeks prior to the expected date of birth.

(v) At least 4 weeks prior to the expiry of the staff member's approved period of parental leave, the staff member may request an extension of unpaid parental leave for a further period of up to 52 weeks immediately following the end of the current parental leave period.

(vi) Where a pregnancy terminates by miscarriage, still birth or due to a life threatening circumstance, after 20 weeks of pregnancy have elapsed, or the child dies within 4 weeks of the birth, the staff member will be entitled to 6 weeks paid leave.

(vii) Where both the primary carer and the partner are staff members, the primary carer paid leave entitlement may be distributed between the two staff members so long as they are the primary carer for the respective periods and at least one of the staff members is eligible.

51.16 Risks to Pregnant or Breastfeeding staff

(i) Where a staff member is pregnant or breastfeeding and, in the opinion of a registered medical practitioner a risk assessment of the workplace and work related activities is necessary, the supervisor will arrange for the assessment and, by agreement with the staff member, will temporarily adjust the staff member’s working conditions, duties, or hours of work in order to avoid exposure to the risk.

(ii) If adjustment is not feasible or cannot readily be made, the University will consult the staff member on options such as secondment to a role not exposed to the risk (on the existing rate and conditions), working from home, commencing parental leave or commencing personal leave.

51.17 Return to Work

(i) A staff member is entitled to return to the substantive position occupied before taking leave, unless otherwise agreed. If the staff member began working part-time because of the pregnancy, the relevant position is the position held immediately before the staff member began working part-time. If the staff member was seconded to an alternate job, the relevant position will be the position held immediately prior to the secondment. If that position no longer exists, the staff member will return to an appropriate position for which they are qualified, and which is at the same level and pay as the pre parental leave position.
(ii) At least 4 weeks prior to the approved return to work, a staff member may request to return on a part-time basis, in which case:

(a) part-time work arrangements for a defined period will be approved by the University where reasonable and practicable;

(b) the part-time work arrangements will be binding on the staff member concerned for the duration of the approved period, unless agreed otherwise; and

(c) the staff member may access accrued long service leave to make up the difference between the part-time hours and the hours of duty in their substantive position.

(iii) A staff member may return to work within their period of paid leave, subject to approval of their supervisor, and use the equivalent of the remaining paid parental leave hours to increase the service fraction to the rate they were receiving prior to commencing Parental Leave where the return to work is in a part-time capacity or reduced fraction. The staff member must use all paid parental leave within 52 weeks of commencement of the leave.

(iv) The University will grant mothers who are breastfeeding paid breaks each day as necessary and provide access to comfortable, private facilities for the purpose of breastfeeding or expressing and storing breast milk.

PARENTAL LEAVE FOR PARTNER (Primary Carer) [PLP (PC)]

51.18 Where the staff member is the partner of a person not employed by the University who gives birth and the staff member takes over the responsibilities of primary carer or takes over as primary carer in relation to an adopted or fostered child, the staff member will be entitled to up to 26 weeks paid Parental Leave for Partner (Primary Carer) [PLP (PC)] subject to the following:

(i) The leave must commence in the 26 weeks following birth or placement and may be taken as a block or blocks of any combination of full pay, pro rata pay or leave without pay, provided that it must be taken within the period of 52 weeks after the birth or placement of the child and any unused balance of leave remaining will lapse at the expiry of that 52 week period;

(ii) The entitlement to PLP (PC) will be reduced by any parental leave (paid or unpaid) that the staff member’s partner receives from any employer whether taken prior to or after the birth or placement of the child;

(iii) The entitlement to paid PLP (PC) will be reduced by any period where another person is the primary carer of the same child; and

(iv) the period of leave available to a partner who is a primary carer will be determined on production of appropriate evidence of primary carer or partner status.

51.19 A staff member who is on PLP (PC) under Clause 51.18 will be entitled to a further period of PLP (PC) under this clause (and subject to the same conditions) if their partner gives birth to another child or the staff member becomes the primary carer of another adopted or fostered child during the staff member’s period of leave. However any remaining PLP (PC) from the birth, adoption of fostering of the first child lapses when the new period of PLP (PC) commences.

PARENTAL LEAVE FOR PARTNER (Non-Primary Carer)

51.20 A staff member is entitled to partner leave of 2 weeks paid leave to be taken during the period 3 weeks prior to the expected birth or placement of the child, and up to 6 months after the actual birth or placement of the child, and additional unpaid partner leave of up to 50 weeks; or

51.21 If a pregnancy terminates by miscarriage, still birth or due to a life threatening circumstance after 20 weeks of pregnancy has elapsed, or the child dies within 4 weeks of the birth, the partner is entitled to 2 weeks paid leave.
KEEPPING IN TOUCH WITH THE WORKPLACE DURING PARENTAL LEAVE

51.22 Staff members on Parental Leave will be encouraged to keep in touch with their workplace and developments at the University so as to facilitate their return to work following their period of leave. This may include a staff member:

(i) requesting to remain on email lists and/or to receive information such as copies of newsletters or minutes of meetings;

(ii) being invited to attend staff meetings or other workplace events occurring from time to time.

52.0 EMERGENCY SERVICES LEAVE

52.1 Staff members will be entitled to leave to engage in voluntary emergency management activities in accordance with the Community Service Leave provisions of the Fair Work Act 2009 (see Chapter 2, Part 2-2, Division 8 of the Act).

52.2 The University will grant up to the first 2 days of such leave on any occasion as paid leave where the staff member is a member of a recognised emergency management body. The University will extend by a total of 2 days the initial period of paid leave in the event that the emergency is declared a natural disaster by the relevant State Government Authority.

52.3 The staff member may apply for and will be granted accrued annual leave or long service leave for any period of voluntary emergency management activities in excess of any paid leave granted under Clause 52.2, rather than being required to take unpaid leave as provided for under the National Employment Standards.

52.4 A staff member taking leave to engage in voluntary emergency management activities will notify the University as soon as is practicable of the nature of the absence and its estimated duration.

52.5 Any period of leave to engage in voluntary emergency management activities will count as service for all purposes.

53.0 JURORS LEAVE

53.1 A staff member required to attend for jury service during ordinary working hours will notify the University as soon as practicable of the date when required to attend for jury service. The staff member will give the University proof of attendance, duration of that attendance and of the amount of any payment received in respect of such jury service (other than the amount received in respect of travelling).

53.2 A staff member will be paid by the University an amount equal to the difference between the amount received in respect of attendance for jury service and the amount of wages which would have been received in respect of ordinary time usually worked had the staff member not been on jury service.

54.0 WITNESS LEAVE

54.1 A staff member required as a witness on behalf of the University or as a witness in proceedings relating to a University matter will, for the purposes of this Agreement, be regarded as being on duty and will not receive witness fees for the period for which they are required as a witness.

54.2 In all other cases, a staff member subpoenaed, summoned, or called as a witness will notify the University of their required absence and will apply for and be granted leave (other than personal leave) for the period of absence.

55.0 LEAVE WITHOUT PAY

55.1 The University and a staff member may agree to the taking of leave without pay and to the terms and conditions upon which such leave is given and taken. Applications for such leave must be accompanied by a statement of the circumstances supporting the application. After a period of leave without pay, a staff member will return at the substantive level which they held before taking the leave.
56.0  PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

56.1  Staff members, other than casual staff members, who are not required for duty, will be allowed to observe the following days (or substitute holiday declared for the State of NSW) as holidays without loss of pay:

(i)  New Year’s Day;
(ii)  Australia Day;
(iii) Good Friday;
(iv)  Easter Saturday;
(v)   Easter Monday;
(vi)  Anzac Day;
(vii) Queen’s Birthday;
(viii) Labour Day;
(ix)  Christmas Day;
(x)   Boxing Day; and
(xi)  all other declared public holidays for the State.

56.2  A staff member who is required to work on a public holiday will, for ordinary hours of duty actually worked, be paid at 2.5 times the ordinary rate of pay. Provided that the additional payment will be in substitution for any shift allowance or penalty applicable and not in addition to it for the hours worked.

57.0  UNIVERSITY HOLIDAYS

57.1  The University will identify a minimum of 3 working days in the period between 27 December and 31 December each year as University holidays for those members of staff not required for duty.

57.2  The Tuesday immediately following Easter Monday will be a University holiday.

57.3  Members of staff required for duty on the above days will be granted equivalent time off during the following month.

57.4  One of the days identified at Clause 57.1 is in substitution for Newcastle Show Holiday.

58.0  DOMESTIC VIOLENCE – SUPPORT FOR STAFF MEMBERS

Definition

58.1  In considering whether a matter falls within domestic violence regard should be given to the Crimes (Domestic and Personal Violence) Act 2007 (NSW). However, in broad terms and for the purpose of this Agreement, domestic violence refers to acts of violence that occur within a household or between family members including current or former partners in an intimate relationship. It may include physical, sexual, emotional or financial abuse.

Principles

58.2  The University recognises that staff members may experience situations of violence or abuse in their personal life that affect their attendance or performance at work. The University is committed to providing support to staff members who experience domestic violence.
58.3 The University understands its legislative responsibilities regarding adverse action and domestic violence. Where the attendance or performance of a staff member suffers as a result of domestic violence, the supervisor and staff member will discuss ways of mitigating or overcoming any such effects on work performance and work co-operatively to implement appropriate and reasonable measures.

58.4 A staff member and their immediate family experiencing domestic violence may access the Employee Assistance Program (EAP). The University encourages affected staff members to access this support as a first step. The University will meet all reasonable costs associated with the provision of this assistance.

58.5 Where a staff member is subject to domestic violence, the University will provide access to:

(i) Personal Leave as described in this Agreement for medical appointments, legal proceedings and other activities related to domestic violence;

(ii) flexible work arrangements including changes to working times or duties, consistent with the reasonable operational needs of the work unit;

(iii) changes of work location, telephone number or email address to avoid harassing contact.

58.6 Where a staff member’s leave entitlement referred to in Clause 58.5 (i) is exhausted, leave without pay may be granted. Each request for leave without pay will be granted on its own merits. Leave without pay will not unreasonably be refused.

58.7 A staff member who supports an immediate family member/member of the household experiencing domestic violence may take carer’s leave (Clause 49- Personal Leave) to accompany them to court, to hospital or to provide care for children while the person being supported attends these appointments.

58.8 For the purposes of granting leave and changes to working arrangements under this clause, the University will need to be satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that domestic violence has occurred and may require proof presented in the form of a document issued by the Police, a Court, a medical practitioner, a lawyer or counselling professional.

58.9 Personal information concerning domestic violence will be treated with confidentiality in line with the University policy and relevant legislation.

59.0 DEFENCE RESERVES LEAVE

59.1 Continuing and fixed term staff members who serve as Reservists in the Australian Defence Force (ADF) [“Reservist Staff Members”] are entitled to:

(i) up to 14 calendar days leave each year on full pay to attend Defence service activities; and

(ii) an additional 14 calendar days on full pay to support Reservist staff members during their first year of Defence service to enable them to complete recruit and initial employment training.

59.2 For all other periods of ADF Reserves service, a staff member may elect to apply for leave without pay, annual leave, long service leave or a combination of the above to cover the required period of Defence Reserve service.

59.3 Periods of leave without pay taken by a staff member for ADF Reserves service will not be counted as service with the University but will not constitute a break in service.

59.4 A part time staff member is entitled to Defence Reserves Leave proportionate to the fraction of full-time hours worked.

59.5 Defence Reserves Leave is based on a calendar year and cannot be carried over.

59.6 The University will continue to make superannuation contributions on behalf of the staff member in respect of any period(s) of leave without pay taken by the Reservist Staff Member for Defence
Reserves service totalling more than 10 days in any calendar year, subject to the following conditions:

(i) the rules of the relevant superannuation fund allowing for the University to make such contributions;

(ii) this provision will only apply to periods of service which the staff member is specifically required by the Defence Force to undertake and where the staff member provides documentary evidence that the service is required;

(iii) the continuing availability of the Employer Support Payment Scheme or a similar scheme which may be accessed by the University to reimburse costs incurred by the University arising from the granting of Defence Reserves Leave;

(iv) the Reservist Staff Member complying with any obligations to make a personal superannuation contribution in respect of the period of leave in accordance with the requirements of the relevant superannuation fund;

(v) the University will make superannuation contributions on behalf of the staff member for such periods of Reserves service to the extent necessary to make up any shortfall between any superannuation contributions made by the Defence Force in respect of that service and contributions that would have been made by the University had the Reservist Staff Member been carrying out their normal duties during that period;

(vi) the Reservist Staff Member providing evidence of any shortfall in superannuation contributions made on behalf of the staff member by the ADF for Reserves service.

59.7 As far as practicable, the amount and timing of Defence Reserves Leave will be arranged so as to meet the operational requirements of the University.

59.8 At the time of applying for Defence Reserves Leave, the staff member will provide evidence satisfactory to the University of the requirement to take the leave and the period of leave required.

PART K: CONSULTATION

60.0 REPRESENTATION

60.1 At any stage, a staff member may nominate a representative for the purposes of this Agreement, from whom they may seek advice, assistance or representation.

60.2 A representative must be:

(i) a member of the staff of the University; or

(ii) an official or office holder of the relevant Union;

who is not a member of the legal profession, such as a barrister or solicitor, in private practice.

The University, in turn, will not be represented by a member of the legal profession, such as a barrister or solicitor, in private practice.

60.3 In instances where staff request representation which may not conform to Clause 60.2, the University will give reasonable consideration to the request.

60.4 Representation responsibilities will be regarded as duty. The University will allow staff reasonable time away from usual duties, or time allocation in their workload to prepare for and attend meetings, attend appropriate training and represent staff in relation to this Agreement subject to operational requirements.
61.0 TEACHERS CONSULTATIVE COMMITTEE

61.1 A Teachers Consultative Committee (TCC) will be established to meet on a regular basis, or as requested, to discuss the implementation of, and consult on matters arising from, this Agreement. The University recognises the Union(s) role in facilitating consultation and communication between staff and management.

61.2 The TCC will:

(i) consist of 3 nominees of the NTEU (2 of whom will be teaching staff of the University) and 3 nominees of the University;

(ii) have a quorum of 2 NTEU nominees and 2 University nominees;

(iii) be empowered to co-opt further members or allow additional attendees.

61.3 NTEU nominees of the TCC who are staff members of the University will be allowed reasonable time off during working hours to attend and prepare for meetings in relation to this Agreement. In making such arrangements, staff members will discuss the need to leave their work area with their supervisor before doing so.

61.4 Access to appropriate facilities, including electronic facilities and notice boards, will be provided to the NTEU nominees of the TCC to perform responsibilities related to this Agreement. The University may also grant time off for consultative committee members to attend appropriate training.

61.5 To facilitate communication with staff, NTEU nominees of the TCC may hold meetings of staff on the premises of the University during work breaks or as otherwise agreed by the University. Adequate notice will be given to the University of the intention to hold formal meetings.

PART L: REVIEW PROCESSES AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

62.0 INQUIRY OFFICER

62.1 A staff member may make an application in writing to the appropriate Deputy-Vice Chancellor to review a decision in relation to:

(i) Performance Review and Development – Clause 6; or,

(ii) Managing Staff Workload – Clause 8; or

(iii) Probation – Clause 9; or

(iv) Redeployment – Clause 19.2 and 19.3; or

(v) Intellectual Property Rights – Clause 23; or

(vi) Leave – Clauses 47 – 55 and 59.

62.2 The University will appoint an Inquiry Officer who:

(i) is without conflict of interest;

(ii) has the capacity to undertake the inquiry within the context of the relevant University policies and processes;

(iii) will apply the principles of procedural fairness.

Prior to appointment of an Inquiry Officer, the University will consult with the relevant union about the appointment.
62.3 The Inquiry Officer will determine the procedure for conducting a review in a timely manner and will outline the procedure to the staff member. The objective of any review will be to:

(i) determine whether the relevant procedures were complied with; and
(ii) whether any procedural difficulty is fundamental; and
(iii) consider any other facts that may have had a bearing on the decision.

62.4 The Inquiry Officer will examine the application in accordance with the relevant clause of this Agreement and any other relevant policies and procedures of the University.

62.5 The Inquiry Officer may interview the applicant and make any other enquiries to assist in making a decision in relation to the application, including receiving submissions from the staff member seeking the review, and their representative or any other relevant person.

62.6 The Inquiry Officer will provide a written report to the appropriate Deputy Vice-Chancellor within 10 working days of the completion of the proceedings. In making a report to the appropriate Deputy Vice-Chancellor the Inquiry Officer will make:

(i) findings in relation to the matters specified at 62.3 and provide reasons; and
(ii) comments on the process, facts or any mitigating circumstances relevant to the case and may make recommendations.

The staff member will be provided with a copy of the Inquiry Officer’s report at the same time as the report is provided to the appropriate Deputy Vice-Chancellor, and the staff member will have a period of 5 working days in which to provide comment on the report to the appropriate Deputy Vice-Chancellor.

62.7 After considering the report(s) and the staff member’s response, the appropriate Deputy Vice-Chancellor will determine that:

(i) the decision is upheld; or
(ii) the decision is overturned; or
(iii) the provisions of this Agreement should be reapplied from the point at which it was found that procedural fairness did not occur; and/or
(iv) some other outcome.

63.0 COMMITTEE OF INQUIRY

63.1 A Committee of Inquiry may be initiated by a staff member writing to the appropriate Deputy Vice-Chancellor to request a review of a recommendation in relation to Unsatisfactory Performance – Clause 11.

63.2 A Committee of Inquiry will also be initiated where required in accordance with the provisions of Misconduct/Serious Misconduct - Clause 12.

63.3 The Committee of Inquiry will comprise:

(i) a staff member employed and chosen by the University;
(ii) a staff member nominated by the relevant union;
(iii) an independent Chairperson.

63.4 Each appointee must satisfy the following criteria:

(i) be without conflict of interest;
63.5 The staff member and the University may be assisted before the Committee of Inquiry by a representative, should they choose.

63.6 The Committee of Inquiry will:

(i) provide an opportunity for the staff member to be interviewed and ensure that they have adequate opportunity to respond to any decision/review/report/allegation/recommendation;

(ii) take into account such further materials as the Committee believes appropriate to substantiate (or otherwise) any matters in dispute;

(iii) seek information and advice in relation to policy, practice and procedural matters;

(iv) interview any person it thinks fit, including the staff member concerned, to establish the process, facts and any mitigating circumstances relevant to the particular review/report/allegation/recommendation;

(v) conduct all interviews in the presence of the staff member and/or a representative as specified in Clause 63.5;

(vi) conduct proceedings as expeditiously as possible;

(vii) conduct proceedings in camera unless otherwise agreed;

(viii) ensure that the staff member, or where they choose their representative, and the University or its representative, have the right to ask questions of interviewees, to make submissions and present and challenge evidence, provided that where the committee so determines the staff member, but not their representative, may be excluded from the conduct of the proceedings;

(ix) determine whether an audio recording of the proceedings (but not the Committee’s deliberations) will be made. Where an audio recording is made, it will be available to the staff member and their representative on request.

63.7 Hearings of a Committee of Inquiry will be conducted within 4 weeks of applications being made to it unless the University and the staff member agree otherwise.

63.8 The Committee of Inquiry will provide a written report to the appropriate Deputy Vice-Chancellor and the staff member within 10 working days of the conclusion of proceedings. In its report the Committee may comment on the process, facts or any mitigating circumstances relevant to the case and may make recommendations to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor.

63.9 Having considered the Committee of Inquiry report, any determination of the appropriate Deputy Vice-Chancellor will be final.

64.0 DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURE

Note: The following clause is subject to an undertaking required by the Fair Work Commission to be given by the University. See sub-paragraph 2 in the letter dated 4 December 2014 attached to this Agreement.

64.1 Where a dispute arises, or is considered likely to arise, regarding the interpretation, application or operation of any provision of this Agreement or the National Employment Standards, the procedures contained in this clause will be followed.
64.2 At any stage in the procedure under this clause a staff member may be represented in accordance with Clause 60 of this Agreement, provided that representation by a lawyer in proceedings under Clause 64.6 and Clause 64.7 will be subject to the applicable rules of the Tribunal to which the dispute has been referred.

64.3 A dispute arising under this clause will in the first instance be discussed by the staff member(s) and their supervisor in an effort to resolve the matter promptly. The staff member(s) may seek the assistance of the relevant Union or other support person (being a staff member) in which case the supervisor may also have a support person.

64.4 Where the steps in Clause 64.3 are unsuccessful, or where the Union raises a dispute, a representative of the relevant Union(s) and a representative of the University will discuss the dispute and attempt to reach an agreement. Where the parties agree, the dispute resolution may proceed directly to the Disputes Committee in Clause 64.5.

64.5 Where the dispute is not resolved under Clause 64.4, at the request of either party a Disputes Committee will be convened within five (5) working days, unless agreed otherwise. The Disputes Committee will consist of two (2) nominees of the University and two (2) nominees of the Union.

64.6 If there is no resolution of the dispute the matter may be referred to the Fair Work Commission, or to a person who is a member of the Industrial Relations Commission of New South Wales in accordance with S146B of the New South Wales Industrial Relations Act. In dealing with the dispute the relevant body may exercise the procedural powers in relation to hearings, witnesses, evidence and submissions which are necessary to make such dealing effective.

64.7 Should the Fair Work Commission or the Industrial Relations Commission of New South Wales proceed with the matter, it will then:

(i) seek to facilitate a fair and reasonable conclusion to the dispute as promptly as possible, via mediation and/or conciliation of the matter in dispute. If these options are unsuccessful, the Fair Work Commission or the Industrial Relations Commission may arbitrate the matter. The parties to the dispute may be represented by a person(s) of their choice;

(ii) make a recommendation to the parties to the dispute or, if the matter is arbitrated, make a determination. The parties to the dispute will consider any recommendation made. Any determination made will be binding on the parties, subject to a party to the dispute exercising a right of appeal under the Fair Work Act.

64.8 This dispute resolution procedure does not apply where the matter is being dealt with in accordance with the Inquiry Officer – Clause 62 or Committee of Inquiry – Clause 63 process.

64.9 Until the procedures in this clause have been exhausted, work will continue and no industrial action or any other action likely to exacerbate the dispute will be taken by any party to the dispute.
