

STAFF ELECTIONS

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEWCASTLE
AUSTRALIA

Am I eligible to nominate?

Eligibility criteria varies for each election. The Nomination Form and the Elections web page advises the specific eligibility criteria for each election.

If you are eligible to nominate for a position, you will receive an email from the Deputy Returning Officer after the nomination period opens containing the Nomination Form.

What are the requirements for the candidate statement and photo?

A candidate statement must be 150 words or less and outline why you are nominating and what you can bring to the role. The statement must not include any offensive, defamatory or inappropriate content that may breach the University's Code of Conduct. If the statement contains any inappropriate content or is longer than 150 words, the University Secretary reserves the right to request it be edited.

It is not compulsory to provide a candidate statement and photo, although most nominees do include them.

How is the order of candidates on the candidate statement and ballot determined?

The Governance Rule states that the "ballot paper" is to contain the names of the candidates in an order determined by lot". As such, candidate names are drawn at random and placed on both the candidate statements and the electronic ballot in that order.

Are there any requirements if I wish to campaign on campus?

There are guidelines on campaigning and electioneering. The guideline covers things such as making sure candidates do not unduly influence or intimidate during polling, do not induce voters, and do not inappropriately use any mailing lists or staff information obtained from any source.

Freedom of expression and flow of information is supported, providing that the fabric of the campus is preserved and protected and the natural environment is not impaired.

How and who can vote?

The Governance Rule and the University of Newcastle By-law 2017 states that all voting is electronic using an electronic ballot system.

Staff who are eligible to vote in an election will receive an email containing a link and instructions on how to access the electronic ballot during the voting period.

I am having technical issues during the voting period, how can I vote?

If you encounter technical issues please email elections@newcastle.edu.au and alternative options will be provided.

What is a scrutineer and what role do they have in the vote count?

Each candidate is entitled to nominate in writing to the Deputy Returning Officer one scrutineer to audit the counting process of the votes cast in their election. Scrutineer Guidelines are provided to all candidates and scrutineers which outline the conduct and requirements.

I would like to find out how many people voted in the election and how many votes the successful candidate won by. Is this information available?

No – The vote count numbers are kept confidential, this is a long standing practice of the University.
