- 2 Agree on a day that all the jobs to be done once per week will be completed.
- 3 Use the template to cut jobs out and use blue tac to stick allocated jobs to food cupboards or bedroom doors.
- 4 Person who is on bin duty for the week is responsible for rotating the jobs ready for the next week.

Duty icons explained

Clean oven and stove tops

Clean the inside and outside of the oven, the grill, inside and outside of the microwave and wipe the stove tops. To be completed once per week.

Empty bins

Empty the kitchen bins (rubbish and recycling). Bins to be emptied whenever bins are full throughout the week. Rotates the cleaning roster jobs at the end of the week.

General tidy up

Tidy clutter in the lounge room, vacuum the carpeted areas and wash any towels from kitchen. This is in addition to any cleaning done by cleaners. To be completed once per week.

Wipe down surfaces

Clean kitchen benches, dining tables and coffee tables. Benches and tables to be wiped down each night after dinner.

Clean appliances

Wipe the kettle and toaster (and empty the crumb tray) along with any other appliances stored on the bench. Wipe down the fridge and freezer doors, shelves and throw away any old food. Wipe out fridge crispers. To be completed once per week

Put away the dishes

Empty the dish rack, put away clean dishes and wipe down the sink area. Dirty dishes to be cleaned by those who used them last. To be completed each night after dinner.
