ESTABLISHMENT

Dr Beryl Collier was an esteemed gynaecologist and obstetrician who had a deep interest in the values of education. She had a love and concern for the rights of others, especially the Aboriginal community. Through her volunteer work with the Central Coast Reconciliation Group, Beryl saw the hurdles that Indigenous people must overcome to access higher education. Following Beryl's death, a bequest of $300,000 was given to the University of Newcastle and the scholarship was established. Dr Beryl Collier also had a deep interest in the National Aboriginal & Islander Skills Development Association (NAISDA). Preference for the scholarship will be given to NAISDA members.
