

Checklist for past and present ADF Members and Families

UNIVERSITY OF NEWCASTLE

Our handy checklist will help you on your path to university, please also check out <https://service2campus.com.au/>

Finalise degree preferences

Current and past-serving Australian Defence members are provided a selection rank by UAC based on their service. With this, ADF members and veterans can apply for direct entry into a range of our programs.

- Review our range of degrees to find out about their selection ranks.
- Review your Military Rank's selection rank equivalent under 'Eligibility' in our Defence Pathway webpage.

Other Pathways

Even if you don't qualify for your desired degree, or if you're not sure you're ready to jump into a degree, there are still many options available.

- Check out our Open Foundation program which prepares you for entry into an undergraduate degree.

Review the Transition Support via our Defence Pathway webpage

If you're worried about transitioning to academic study and want to brush up on your skills, NUPrep short courses (Bridging programs) can help you shift gears into academic study.
