GRADUATION 2025
MONDAY 15 AND TUESDAY 16
DECEMBER

HONORARY DOCTORATE AWARD RECIPIENT AND OCCASIONAL SPEAKER

Monday 15 December 2025 | 10am Ceremony

Mr Mark Vassella

Mark Vassella was appointed Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer of BlueScope Steel in January 2018.

BlueScope is a steel products manufacturer operating in 15 countries with 16,500 employees. BlueScope is renowned for its portfolio of premium building products including the iconic Colorbond, Truecore and Zinalume brands.

The Company has grown to become one of Australia's largest manufacturing companies and a major investor in the US.

Mark began his career as a commerce trainee at the BHP Steelworks in Newcastle, studying Commerce at the University of Newcastle. After commencing a Master of Business Administration at the University of Newcastle he completed his MBA at the University of Queensland. He undertook further post graduate studies at IMD in Switzerland.

During a 30+ year career in the steel industry Mark has moved from finance to general management and senior leadership. He has worked and lived in the United Kingdom and the United States and has led joint ventures companies with major international partners in countries including the USA, India and Saudi Arabia.

Mark is on the Executive Board of Directors at the World Steel Association (worldsteel) which represents 85% of global steel production and he holds the office of Treasurer.

He is a proud 'Old Boy' of the University of Newcastle Rugby Club (Seahorse #679).

He is a past Board member, President and Treasurer of the Family Life charitable organisation.

Mark lives in Melbourne with his wife Anna and is the proud father of daughters Emily and Grace. Mark's family still lives in Caves Beach, where he grew up, and he returns there as much as possible.

HONORARY PROFESSOR EMERITUS

Monday 15 December 2025 | 10am Ceremony

Professor Erich Kisi

Professor Erich Kisi is an internationally recognised materials scientist with over 35 years of academic and applied research experience. He completed his PhD in Metallurgy at the University of Newcastle in 1988 and began his career as a National Research Fellow at Australian Nuclear Science and Technology Organisation (ANTSO). He later held a Senior Research Fellow role at Griffith University before returning to Newcastle as a lecturer in 1993. He progressed through academic ranks to become Professor in 2007, retiring in 2022.

Professor Kisi's research focuses on the relationship between crystal structure and physical properties of advanced materials, with particular expertise in in-situ neutron and X-ray diffraction under extreme conditions. His work spans zirconia ceramics, metal hydrides, MAX phases, and ferroelectrics, contributing to two books, over 200 refereed papers, three patents, and more than 5,000 citations (H-index 40). He has secured over AUD $6.2 million in research funding and supervised 22 PhD and Masters completions.

A Fellow of the Institute of Physics (London), Professor Kisi has collaborated with leading international facilities including ILL (France), ISIS (UK), and ANSTO (Australia). He has served in key academic leadership roles, including Assistant Dean (Postgraduate Studies), and contributed extensively to curriculum development and research training.

Since 2019, he has been Executive Chair and Chief Scientist at MGA Thermal Pty Ltd, co-inventing patented thermal energy storage technology aimed at enabling 24-hour renewable energy solutions.

HONORARY DOCTORATE AWARD RECIPIENT AND OCCASIONAL SPEAKER

Monday 15 December 2025 | 2.30pm Ceremony

Emeritus Professor Peter Coaldrake AO

Emeritus Professor Peter Coaldrake has a distinguished record of service to government and higher education. Professor Coaldrake served as Chief Commissioner of Tertiary Education Quality and Standards Agency (TEQSA), Australia's higher education regulator, from March 2021 to May 2024. Prior to this, Professor Coaldrake was the Vice-Chancellor and CEO of Queensland University of Technology (QUT), a position he held for nearly fifteen years to December 2017. He is a former Chair of both the peak body for Australia's Universities, Universities Australia (UA) and the governing board of the OECD's then higher education group (IMHE).

Professor Coaldrake has recently completed an eight-year term as the Chair of the Board of the Queensland Performing Arts Trust and is currently a Board Member of the Queensland Community Foundation.

Over the past 10 years he has been appointed by various governments to conduct a range of reviews relating to higher education policies and programs, as well as the accountability and culture within the Queensland public sector. The final report of that review, 'Let the Sunshine In' was published on 28 June 2022.

A dual Fulbright scholar, Professor Coaldrake has authored and edited numerous books and monographs relevant to the higher education system in Australia. He is the recipient of a 'Queensland Great' Award (2017) and the Asia Pacific Leadership Award by the Council for Advancement and Support of Education (2016).

HONORARY PROFESSOR EMERITUS

Monday 15 December 2025 | 2.30pm Ceremony

Professor John Fischetti

Professor John Fischetti is a global leader in schooling and higher education transformation with over 40 years of experience. Beginning his career as a secondary teacher, John has served as Dean of Education and most recently as Pro Vice-Chancellor of the College of Human and Social Futures at the University of Newcastle. His guiding mantra is: “For too long, schools and universities have been places young people go to watch their teachers work.”

John’s influence extends worldwide through his PhD graduates, who are now leaders in schools and universities across Australia and beyond. His undergraduate students are driving change in learning, teaching, and assessment in their own contexts.

His latest book, The Future of Schooling in a GenAI World (co-authored with Imig, Shaw, and Vo), challenges educators to accelerate the rethinking of how we “do” education—while preserving our most vital asset: HI, our Human Intelligence.

OCCASIONAL SPEAKER

Monday 15 December 2025 | 6.30pm Ceremony

Professor Belinda Tynan

Professor Belinda Tynan is a highly experienced executive in the tertiary education sector, with a strong track record of fostering strategic industry relationships and international partnerships that directly benefit students.

Her current leadership role as Senior Deputy Vice Chancellor (Academic) at The University of Newcastle, and at institutions in Australia and internationally, have been marked by a commitment to aligning education with real-world outcomes.

Professor Tynan's work has consistently focused on creating opportunities for students through collaborative ventures with industry, enhancing employability, and ensuring that educational offerings remain relevant and future-focused.

Her recent role as National Education Lead at Deloitte further underscores her ability to bridge the gap between academia and industry, helping to shape educational strategies that prepare students for dynamic and evolving career landscapes.

Mr Phillip Adams AC

Phillip Adams AC FAHA FRSA has had a distinguished career in journalism, filmmaking, broadcasting, and public life. He has been honoured three times in the Order of Australia, culminating in an AC, the highest civilian honour.

One of Australia's '100 Living National Treasures', his other awards include the Human Rights Medal, the Centenary Medal, and the film industry's highest accolade, the Longford Award. Plus a Walkley Award, a Logie and a Golden Lion at the Cannes Festival.

He has a 'small planet' named after him by the International Astronomic Society.

His famous advertising campaigns include Life: Be in it and Slip Slop Slap for the Cancer Council.

Billed as the Godfather of the revival of the Australian film industry, he co-created our first film school - at Swinburne University - and was the driving force for the Australian Film, Radio and Television School in Sydney.

He also found time to write several books and to write, direct or produce many feature films, including iconic titles such as The Adventures of Barry McKenzie, Don's Party, Lonely Hearts, We of the Never Never and The Getting of Wisdom.

Adams has a special interest in animated films - producing Abracadabra, our first 3D feature (voiced by John Farnham), and Grendel Grendel Grendel, 'an animated film for grownups' (voiced by Peter Ustinov).

Board memberships included Wikileaks, Greenpeace, the Institute of Multicultural Affairs, the Adelaide Festival, Adelaide's Festival of Ideas and its Brisbane counterpart, the Families in Distress Foundation, the Montsalvat Artists' Colony, Care Australia, Clean-up Australia, Ausflag, A Just Australia and the Aboriginal Treaty Committee.

Adams is married to a graduate of this University, Dr Patrice Newell AM.

HONORARY UNIVERSITY FELLOWSHIP RECIPIENT

Tuesday 16 December 2025 | 10am Ceremony

Ms Gillean Shaw

Gillean Shaw is the Art Curator for the University Galleries at the University of Newcastle, where she manages two galleries; the University Gallery at Callaghan and the Watt Space Gallery in Newcastle City.

During her tenure, she has facilitated the design and installation of a museum of artefacts dated to the museum by Santa Taft Hendry, and now home to many other collections.

Through developing the art collection with a focus on ethical collecting, the University now boasts an active collection of over 3,600 artworks installed across all our campuses, with more than fifty percent representation by First Nations artists from across Australia.

She received a Master of Fine Art (Research) in 2003 from the University for investigations into the presentation of cultural materials, particularly related to organisations with legacy collections and First Nations holdings.

She is also the Chair of the Management Board for the Lockup, a contemporary art space housed in a 19th century building in Newcastle's CBD, and engages actively with our vital arts ecology in the region and in particular supporting emerging artists.

OCCASIONAL SPEAKER

Tuesday 16 December 2025 | 2.30pm Ceremony

Professor John Anderson

John Anderson PhD is a Professor of Law at the School of Law and Justice, University of Newcastle. He practised in criminal law before becoming an academic in 1997. John has progressed over time from his original appointment as a lecturer through to the ranks of the Professoriate at Newcastle and has held visiting scholar positions at the Universities of Oxford, Edinburgh and Nottingham in the United Kingdom as well as at Queen's University in Canada. John has a national and international profile as a criminal law and evidence scholar. His research focuses on matters relating to equity and fairness in sentencing, which extends to sentencing options, restorative justice and practice, homicide offenders, life imprisonment, parole and recidivism, and he has published widely in these areas. He is a member of Life Imprisonment Worldwide and Penal Reform International. John's research has expanded beyond the criminal justice system to him being a chief investigator on numerous research projects including implementing restorative practice, taking action on elder abuse and advance personal planning for older adults. John continues to work with the Hunter Restorative Community through research and community engagement relating to restorative justice and practice in various settings, including the criminal justice system and aged care. John has been the academic member of the NSW Sentencing Council since September 2020 and is an active voice in the council's research and policy work.

OCCASIONAL SPEAKER

Tuesday 16 December 2025 | 6.30pm Ceremony

Mr Adam Macdougall

Adam MacDougall scaled the dizzy heights of rugby league, but what's not commonly recognised is his long list of business achievements.

A two-time Newcastle Knights premiership winner whose talents were consistently recognised by NSW and Australian representative selectors, Adam holds a Master of Business Administration, Bachelor of Economics degree majoring in finance, Masters of Business Coaching and is a certified Process Communication Model (PCM) trainer.

He has also studied extensively in the fields of sports science, strength and conditioning, and nutrition.

All of which provided the necessary expertise to create two health and wellness companies, The MAN Shake and Hardnup Health, following his retirement from rugby league in 2011.

Believing health is our most important asset, he is determined to help educate and inspire Australians to take back their health in the face of a growing obesity epidemic.

Since his retirement from playing rugby league, Adam has made his mark in the media - with Channel 9, Fox Sports, Sky News, Southern Cross Austereo, News Limited and Fairfax.

He is also passionate about helping children and works for the NRL as a One Community Ambassador, delivering a program to schools known as "Eat Well, Play Well, Stay Well" and "The Anti-Bullying Program".

Adam MacDougall's companies have also signed on as a charity partner with "Save Our Sons", an organisation aiming to find a cure for Duchenne Muscular Dystrophy.
