Establishing Status

Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander students will receive guaranteed entry to accommodation on campus upon completion of an accommodation application.² The successful completion of an accommodation application includes the finalisation of the university's Establishing Status process.³

Available on the University's website, the Establishing Status Policy reflects the University's commitment to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples and Reconciliation as outlined in the University's Strategic Plan and Reconciliation Action Plan.

Starting with applications for Semester One 2022 on campus accommodation, access to guaranteed accommodation for new Australian Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander residents will be based on the completion of the Establishing Aboriginality and/or Torres Strait Islander Status Procedure, which contains the application form. Returning residents will not need to establish their status in order to continue to live on campus.

For more information on how to complete the Establishing Status process please contact PVCIndigenous@newcastle.edu.au

Guaranteed accommodation places through Schools Recommendation Scheme offer

This year, eligible students who receive an early offer through the Schools Recommendation Scheme in November Round 1 will also be guaranteed a place at the University of Newcastle's Callaghan on-campus accommodation.
