

UNIVERSITY OF
NEWCASTLE

WOLLOTUKA INSTITUTE

Indigenous Engagement and Advancement Through Education

The Wollotuka Institute of Indigenous Engagement and Advancement champions innovation, entrepreneurship, and collaboration to achieve quality outcomes that prioritize Indigenous students and communities. With a proud history in Indigenous education, employment, and research, we prepare Indigenous graduates who make a difference within the University, in our communities, and across the globe.

ENGAGEMENT CAPABILITIES

- Student Support & Retention: Comprehensive programs to increase participation and retention of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students
- Community Empowerment: Initiatives that strengthen Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander families and communities
- Cultural Safety: Providing culturally safe educational environments for Indigenous Peoples
- Research Leadership: Leading Aboriginal health research strategy and culturally responsive research methods
- Graduate Development: Preparing Indigenous graduates who create meaningful impact globally

EDUCATIONAL IMPACT

- High Participation Rates: Strong commitment to maintaining high Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander student participation
- Community Connection: Programs designed to strengthen ties between University and Indigenous communities
- Cultural Education: Educating stakeholders about Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander histories and cultures
- Scholarship Programs: Supporting the next generation through targeted educational scholarships
- Research Influence: Conducting research that influences positive change for Indigenous communities

BUILDING INDIGENOUS LEADERS FOR TOMORROW

Our scholarship programs directly support Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students in degrees aligned with industry needs, creating pathways for the next generation of Indigenous leaders. By combining cultural safety with academic excellence, we're not just educating students – we're empowering communities and building a more inclusive future.

CONTACT US:

Lindsay Hardy

Stakeholder Manager

Wollotuka Institute

lindsay.hardy@newcastle.edu.au

