

The UNIVERSITY of NEWCASTLE

GRADUATION 2025
WEDNESDAY 17 AND THURSDAY 18
DECEMBER

OCCASIONAL SPEAKER

Wednesday 17 December 2025 | 10am Ceremony

Professor Kerry Inder

Professor Kerry Inder is the Professor of Clinical Education and Interprofessional Learning and Clinical Dean of the Central Coast Clinical School, with responsibility for the Joint Medical Program.

Appointed across both the School of Medicine and Public Health and the School of Nursing and Midwifery, Kerry has extensive experience in clinical education, interprofessional practice, and academic leadership.

A registered nurse with 20 years of clinical experience in cardiology, Kerry completed her PhD in Community Medicine and Clinical Epidemiology in 2005, focusing on outpatient cardiac rehabilitation. Throughout her career, she has taught widely across Medicine, Public Health, Epidemiology, and Nursing, and played a key role in establishing the Master of Public Health program.

Kerry has held multiple postgraduate research fellowships, contributed to significant research supervision - including 24 higher degree research completions - and has held a range of leadership positions within the School of Nursing and Midwifery and the College of Health, Medicine and Wellbeing since joining in 2015. Based both at Callaghan and at the Gosford Hospital campus, she works closely with clinical partners to strengthen teaching, collaboration, and the regional clinical workforce.

GRADUATE SPEAKER

Olivia Clift

Bachelor of Nursing

MUSICAL PERFORMANCES

The National Anthem will be performed by Maddie Lilley.

Musical Interlude will be performed by Jack Chambers.

All musicians and performers are current students, alumni or community partners of the University of Newcastle.

OCCASIONAL SPEAKER

Wednesday 17 December 2025 | 2.30pm Ceremony

Dr Jennifer May AM

Professor Jenny May AM has been passionate about rural health since her first rural medical student placement in 1980 and then as a trainee rural doctor at Tamworth Hospital in 1985.

Professor May's vast and extensive knowledge working across Australia and internationally has provided multiple opportunities to contribute through research on health workforce matters. She now calls Tamworth home and has had the incredible privilege to live and work with her doctor husband and family in a number of remote and regional locations.

Professor May holds fellowships with RACGP and ACRRM and has extensive experience in clinical practice, research, education and rural health advocacy. In 2016 she was awarded a Member of the Order of Australia (AM) for significant service to community health in rural and regional areas, as a general practitioner, member of professional medical groups, and as an educator.

With over 35 years of working and supporting rural, regional and remote health care, her appointment as the third National Rural Health Commissioner has been widely welcomed.

GRADUATE SPEAKER

Nicholas Coonan

Master of Mental Health Nursing with Distinction

MUSICAL PERFORMANCES

OCCASIONAL SPEAKER

Wednesday 17 December 2025 | 6.30pm Ceremony

Dr Hemal Patel

Dr Hemal Patel is an emergency physician and medical educator based in Lake Macquarie, NSW.

He serves as Program Convenor for the Joint Medical Program at the University of Newcastle and University of New England, and is Associate Medical Director at NSW Ambulance.

Dr Patel has a strong interest in interprofessional education, clinical simulation, and system-level approaches to complex care. His recent work has included the management of behavioural disturbance in the pre-hospital setting, with a particular emphasis on safety, coordination, and trauma-informed practice.

He is committed to improving team-based responses in high-risk environments.

GRADUATE SPEAKER

Jimmy Jan

Bachelor of Medical Science and Doctor of Medicine

HONORARY DOCTORATE AWARD RECIPIENT AND OCCASIONAL SPEAKER

Thursday 18 December 2025 | 10am Ceremony

The Honourable Dr Kevin Rudd AC

HE the Hon Dr Kevin Rudd AC is Australia's Ambassador to the United States of America, taking up his posting in Washington in March 2023.

Ambassador Rudd served as Australia's twenty-sixth Prime Minister from 2007 to 2010, then as Minister for Foreign Affairs, before a second term as Prime Minister in 2013. He was Member for Griffith in the Australian Parliament from 1998 to 2013.

Since leaving government, Ambassador Rudd has resided in the United States where he is recognised as a leading analyst of China. In 2015, he became inaugural President of the Asia Society Policy Institute in New York. In 2020, he was appointed President and CEO of the Asia Society globally and, in 2022, he founded the Asia Society Policy Institute's Center for China Analysis. In 2019, Ambassador Rudd was appointed a Companion of the Order of Australia for eminent service to Indigenous reconciliation, innovative economic initiatives, and major policy reform, and through senior advisory roles with international organisations. Ambassador Rudd holds honorary positions at the Atlantic Council and Center for Strategic and International Studies in Washington DC; the Asia Society, Schwartzman Scholars and Bloomberg New Economy Forum in New York; the Paulson Institute in Chicago; the Paris School of International Affairs at Sciences Po in Paris, France; the Chancellor Helmut Schmidt Foundation in Hamburg, Germany; and Museum of Australian Democracy at Old Parliament House in Canberra. He is founder and co-chair of an Australian charity, the National Apology Foundation, and a trustee of the Cathedral of St John the Divine in New York City.

Ambassador Rudd started his diplomatic career in 1981 with postings to Beijing and Stockholm. In 1988, he was appointed Chief of Staff to the Hon Wayne Goss and served him as Premier of Queensland. He was Director-General of the Cabinet Office in Queensland from 1991 to 1995, and Senior China Consultant for KPMG from 1996 to 1998.

Ambassador Rudd graduated with Honours in Asian Studies from the Australian National University and received his PhD from Oxford University in 2022. He also studied at National Taiwan Normal University in Taipei.

GRADUATE SPEAKER

Natalia Hogan

Bachelor of Physiotherapy

MUSICAL PERFORMANCES

The National Anthem will be performed by Maddie Lilley.

Musical Interlude will be performed by Tyler Chapman.

OCCASIONAL SPEAKER

Thursday 18 December 2025 | 2.30pm Ceremony

Kate Meredith

Kate Meredith is a seasoned health professional serving as the Acting District Director of Integrated Care, Allied Health and Community Services (ICAHCS) for the Mid North Coast Local Health District. A trained speech pathologist, she has progressed through a range of clinical and leadership roles over the past decade, including senior allied health management positions within the district.

In her current executive role, Kate provides strategic leadership for the region's integrated care programs, bridging hospital and community health services. She leads multidisciplinary teams across primary care, community health, and mental health programs, working to ensure seamless, patient-centered delivery of allied health and support services.

Over the last 5-10 years she has been instrumental in advancing initiatives that integrate allied health into broader care models across the region.

She has worked closely with Aboriginal health organisations and local councils to improve access to care across the region.

Under Kate's leadership, the district's allied health teams have earned state-wide recognition for excellence, reflecting the mentoring culture and high standards she promotes.

She emphasises evidence-based practice and has guided a shift toward value-based care within the organisation. In recent years she has also collaborated with academic partners to strengthen allied health training and research. Kate's accomplishments underscore her commitment to enhancing patient outcomes through integrated, team-based services and to building a sustainable, high-performing allied health workforce in regional communities.

GRADUATE SPEAKER
