

The health fund exclusively for the higher education community

UniHealth Insurance has partnered with the University of Newcastle to provide an employee benefit that gives you and your family access to great value health insurance.

We are brought to you by Teachers Health Fund, Australia's largest industry-based health fund with over 60 years of experience and covering over 290,000 lives nationwide.

As a not-for-profit organisation, UniHealth Insurance exists for members and offers lower costs, generous benefits and a range of health and wellbeing programs, plus access to discounted travel and general insurance products.

UniHealth Insurance members also receive exclusive discounts through our member wellbeing network providers, including the Health Centre in Hamilton offering optical, dental, and physio services.
