AS A REGISTERED NURSE, YOU WILL WORK IN A DIVERSE AND FAST-PACED MEDICAL ENVIRONMENT TO PROVIDE QUALITY HEALTH CARE AND SUPPORT TO INDIVIDUALS, FAMILIES AND COMMUNITIES.

One of Australia’s most trusted professions, nurses make a real difference to the health and wellbeing of the community and are essential within any health care system or facility. This also means nurses are highly employable; your nursing career could take you across Australia and the globe, working in public and private healthcare facilities in areas across a range of disciplines in the health sector. Whichever direction you choose for your career, you can be sure that you will be making a meaningful contribution to society as a registered nurse.

Find out more newcastle.edu.au/degrees
Nursing at the University of Newcastle

In the three-year Bachelor of Nursing, you will gain the comprehensive medical knowledge and patient-centred communication skills you'll need to excel in any health care setting as a registered nurse.

Your nursing studies at the University of Newcastle will equip you with the skills to provide evidenced-based holistic nursing care to individuals and communities.

You will gain a comprehensive education by participating in a wide range of engaging health courses, including nursing theory and practice in primary, secondary and tertiary nursing, aged care, mental health and human bioscience.

Learn from enthusiastic and experienced clinical educators and internationally ranked researchers. Their teaching excellence will ensure you graduate with the knowledge, skills and clinical reasoning you will need to work within a dynamic and fast-paced medical environment, or to pursue a rewarding career in research.

During your degree, there are plenty of opportunities to hone your nursing skills through hands-on experience in clinical laboratories and placements.

Once you graduate, you will be accredited by the Australian Nursing and Midwifery Accreditation Council and will also be eligible to apply for registration with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency.

Need extra support? You may be eligible for a Faculty of Health and Medicine High Achiever Undergraduate Scholarship worth $10,000. Find out more at newcastle.edu.au/scholarships.

In the three-year Bachelor of Nursing, you will gain the comprehensive medical knowledge and patient-centred communication skills you'll need to excel in any health care setting as a registered nurse.

Learn from the world's brightest minds

Associate Professor Vanessa McDonald

A leading clinical researcher, Associate Professor McDonald investigates innovative approaches to the management of chronic airway diseases.

Quality degree. Quality facilities.

Purpose-built equipment and facilities

During your degree, you will utilise the latest technology and gain hands-on clinical experience through laboratory simulation activities in our world-class facilities on-campus.

Graduates who make a difference

Jessica, nursing graduate

“Nursing allowed me to build on my understanding of human physiology and add patient interaction, and care and support people and make a difference to their lives.”

HOURS OF CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

800

With hands-on experience, you will graduate with the skills and knowledge to jump into a challenging and rewarding career.

86%

of our nursing graduates find full-time employment within four months of graduating.*

$52,000

The average starting salary of nursing graduates.*

Faculty of Health and Medicine

UAC Code

483600 - Newcastle
483610 - Central Coast
483620 - Port Macquarie

ATAR

2016 2015 2014

77.00 78.15 71.10

Assumed knowledge

HSC english, general mathematics, biology and/or chemistry, or equivalent, and general computer skills

Pathways

HSC (Higher School Certificate), Open Foundation, Newstep, Yapug, TAFE (Technical and Further Education), STAT (Special Tertiary Admissions Test)

For full degree information, testimonials, videos and how to apply, visit:

www.newcastle.edu.au/degrees