Australia Awards Scholarship 2027
Pacific Study Guide

Advance your leadership journey at the University of Newcastle.

Ranked in the top 1 % of universities worldwide, the University of Newcastle is a globally recognised institution with a strong focus on development impact, practical learning and real-world outcomes. We have a long-established partnership with the Australia Awards program and a dedicated support team to guide award recipients throughout their study journey.

Our engagement with the Pacific region is guided by strategic partnerships and a focus on priority development areas including environment and climate resilience, health and education, gender equality and social inclusion, and economic growth. Through collaboration with governments and organisations across the Pacific, Newcastle contributes directly to regional capacity building and sustainable development goals.

Australia Awards in the Pacific

Australia Awards Scholarships support emerging leaders across the Pacific to undertake study in Australia and contribute to sustainable development in their home countries. Scholarship allocations, priority fields and eligible levels of study vary by country.

Depending on your country of citizenship, you may be eligible for, Undergraduate programs, Master by Coursework, Master by Research, Doctor of Philosophy and Technical and vocational qualifications. Applicants must align their proposed program with their country's approved priority sectors.

Applications close on 30 April 2026 at 2.00 pm AEST.
