Planning course content for 2027

To be able to support academic colleagues across the university we have implemented support access deadlines. To ensure you can receive support from the LDTI team prior to course delivery for 2027, please ensure you keep in mind the below dates. We encourage colleagues to get in touch as early as possible to ensure we can support your requests.

IMPORTANT
Anticipate a one-week delay for on-demand support and course edit requests.

* Approximate date provided. Courses will be copied from the most recent offering of the same term type and locations merged as per previous offering.
 Large course development and video projects recorded after this date will not be guaranteed to be delivered by the beginning of Sem or Tri 1 2027.
