

The UNIVERSITY of NEWCASTLE

GRADUATION 2025
TUESDAY 15 APRIL

HONORARY DOCTORATE AWARD RECIPIENT AND OCCASIONAL SPEAKER

Tuesday 15 April 2025 | 10am Ceremony

The Honourable Michael John Lee

Michael Lee grew up in Cronulla, graduating from the University of New South Wales with degrees in Science and Electrical Engineering.

He moved to the Central Coast in 1979 to work as a Construction Engineer at Eraring Power Station, later also working at Vales Point and Munmorah Power Stations.

In 1984 at age 27 he was elected to the House of Representatives as the first Federal Member for Dobell. He chaired parliamentary committees on Science, Industry and Print Media.

In 1993 he was appointed as a Cabinet Minister in the Keating Government, serving as Minister for Resources and Tourism in 1993 and Minister for Communications, Arts and Tourism from 1994 until 1996.

Creative Nation, the national cultural policy of the Australian Government was released in 1994. After the defeat of the Keating Government, Michael served as Shadow Minister for Health and Shadow Minister for Education when Kim Beazley was Leader of the Opposition.

After his defeat at the 2001 election he was appointed Chair of the Central Coast Campuses Board and later Chair of the NSW TAFE Commission. He has previously been a Director of Sydney Airport, Essential Energy and currently chairs the Calvary Ministries Trustee Board. He lives at Norah Head.

All musicians and performers are current students or alumni of the University of Newcastle.

OCCASIONAL SPEAKER

Tuesday 15 April 2025 | 2pm Ceremony

Wendy Stanbrook-Mason

Wendy has over 30 years of health leadership experience, joining Central Coast Health from the role of Deputy Chief Nursing Officer at New Zealand's largest teaching hospital, Te Whatu Ora Te Toka Tumai, Auckland.

With a background in clinical nursing, Wendy's career has spanned emergency nursing, nursing management, nursing operations and regional health through working with the Te Whatu Ora Districts and Schools of Nursing.

Wendy has a Master in Management and a Postgraduate Diploma in Health Services Management, with 20 years of senior leadership experience and a passion for leading high-functioning teams with a patient focus. Having been a member of several Clinical Quality, Safety & Risk Committees in her roles in New Zealand, Wendy has an interest in using governance and systems to ensure safe, quality practice is delivered by great nurses and midwives.

In her current role, Wendy provides leadership to nursing and midwifery staff across our health service, supporting staff to provide high quality, safe and timely care to patients. Her role also ensures that workforce planning and effective people management strategies are in place, and that continuous improvement is an essential part of nursing and midwifery practice.

GRADUATE SPEAKER

Kiah O'Toole

Bachelor of Nursing

MUSICAL PERFORMANCES

The National Anthem will be performed by Meedie accompanied on piano by Terence Koo.

All musicians and performers are current students or alumni of the University of Newcastle.

OCCASIONAL SPEAKER

Tuesday 15 April 2025 | 6pm Ceremony

David Mehan MP

David Mehan is the State Member for The Entrance and currently serves as the Parliamentary Secretary to the Treasurer in the New South Wales Parliament. He was first elected to represent The Entrance in 2015 and was subsequently re-elected in 2019 and 2023.

A geologist by profession, David has lived on the Central Coast for over 30 years and brings a broad range of experience to his role, having worked in geotechnical engineering, the finance sector, and the trade union movement. He is a long-standing member of the Australian Labor Party, joining in 1989, and has a strong background in community advocacy, including over a decade as a board member and Chair of the Central Coast Tenants Advice and Advocacy Service Ltd.

David also served as a Lieutenant in the Australian Army Reserve from 1984 to 1990 and was awarded the Australian Defence Medal. He is an alumnus of the University of Newcastle, where he earned a Bachelor of Science. David later completed a Master of Labour Law at the University of Sydney, along with qualifications in financial services.

Prior to his election to Parliament, he held roles with the National Union of Workers and LUCRF Superannuation Fund. David is committed to providing equitable access to essential public services, such as health and education, and regularly speaks in Parliament on matters affecting the Central Coast.
