Information about the service

An International Day Pass allows you to make and receive unlimited standard voice calls and SMS, and includes a data allowance to use in Eligible Countries. A Day Pass charge is triggered when you use your services overseas in an Eligible Country. Usage includes making or receiving a call, sending an SMS or using mobile data.

Availability

The International Day Pass is available to you as a Telstra Consumer or Small Business Post-Paid Mobile customer.

The International Day Pass is not available for any services on the following plans:

- Premium Mobile Plus, Premium Mobile plan, Premium Swap plan, My Business Premium Lease plan, My Business Premium Mobile plan, Business Premium Mobile plan, Corporate Mobile Plus, All-4-Buz Mach II, International Roaming Data Pack, International Roaming Data plan, International Roaming Voice plan, any other plan that provides an International Roaming Discount.

Minimum term

International Day Passes are available for use each day but are only charged when you use your service overseas in an Eligible Country. Each day a service is used in an Eligible Country, $5 or $10 will be charged to your account and the inclusions listed in the table above will be available for use that day (AEST). Unused data expires at the end of each day (AEST).

What's included

An International Day Pass includes unlimited calls and SMS to standard international numbers and 100MB data for use each day (AEST) when travelling in the Eligible Countries listed in the above table. A standard number refers to local or international fixed-line and mobile numbers.

Data usage is the amount of data you use to browse the internet, send and receive email and MMS, and use mobile apps. If you're not sure how much data you might need, then use the Data Usage Calculator to help you estimate your data usage needs at telstra.com.au/mobile-phones/plans-and-rates/data-usage-calculator

What's not included

- Data used in excess of 100MB (which will be charged at $10 per 500MB, valid for 31 days, for usage in Eligible Countries).
- Usage in Australia, on airplanes or cruise ships.
- MMS (Event Fees), video calls or calls to non-standard numbers (satellite numbers, premium numbers and operator assisted calls).
- Content charges such as third party services, ring tones, apps, movies or songs.
- Calls, SMS and data usage in destinations not covered by your International Day Pass. Calls and SMS will be charged at international roaming rates (see telstra.com.au/international-roaming/availability-pricing/post-paid) and data at $3 per MB (charged per KB or part).

You must pay for this usage separately.

These rates are correct as at August 2017 and may change from time to time. You can see our current rates at telstra.com.au/overseas

Information about pricing

The International Day Pass charge, the inclusions and list of Eligible Countries are outlined in the table above.

If you cancel your International Day Pass or deactivate roaming during that day, you will still be charged the Day Pass charge for that day.
