1. Introduction

An important part of the constitution of the University of Newcastle is its Convocation, which is recognised in sections 4 and 14 of the University of Newcastle Act 1989 (NSW).

The Alumni Advisory Committee is the standing committee of Convocation established by the University’s Council under section 14 of the University of Newcastle Act 1989 (NSW).

Rule 6 is subject to proposed amendments to the By-law, and will only come into effect upon a date to be declared by Council.

2. Rule Intent

The intent of this Rule is to provide the framework in which Convocation can positively engage with the University, including through an executive committee constituted by the Alumni Advisory Committee.

3. Convocation

3.1. Constitution of Convocation

[Secretary Note: The content of this clause is now contained in Clause 13 of the By-law, which should be read with Section 14 of the Act]

3.13. Election of the Alumni Advisory Committee

3.13.1. The election of members of Convocation to the Alumni Advisory Committee, and for the President and Vice President, will take place at each Annual General Meeting where a term of office has expired or there is a vacancy.

- 3.13.2. Nominations for election to the Alumni Advisory Committee will be called in the notice of the Annual General Meeting and will be accepted up to 7 days before the Annual General Meeting.
- 3.13.3. Each nomination must be signed by two members of Convocation and be endorsed with or accompanied by the written consent of the candidate.
- 3.13.4. Each candidate should provide at the time of his or her nomination a statement containing the following information:
- 3.13.4.1. full name;
  - 3.13.4.2. academic qualifications;
  - 3.13.4.3. honours and distinctions;
  - 3.13.4.4. positions or offices held in the candidate's field of employment; and
  - 3.13.4.5. positions or offices held at any time in public bodies, clubs and institutions (including University clubs and societies).
- 3.13.5. Nominations for the positions of President or Vice-President will:
- 3.13.5.1. be noted as such on the nomination paper; and
  - 3.13.5.2. be deemed to also be a nomination to become an elected member of the Alumni Advisory Committee; and
  - 3.13.5.3. in the case of the President, be deemed to also be a nomination to become the warden of Convocation for the purposes of the Act and By-law.
- 3.13.6. A separate ballot will be held for:
- 3.13.6.1. the election of members of the Alumni Advisory Committee; and
  - 3.13.6.2. the election of a President and Vice President.
- 3.13.7. The procedure for conducting a ballot for elected members of the Alumni Advisory Committee is as follows:
- 3.13.7.1. electronic ballots may be used in accordance with the Governance Rule;
  - 3.13.7.2. ballot papers will be prepared by the Alumni Officer including the names of nominated candidates by lot, in the manner prescribed by clause 27 of the By-law;

- 3.13.7.3. members will be instructed to indicate chosen candidates by inserting a cross alongside the name of each such candidate to the number of vacancies to be filled;
  - 3.13.7.4. the Alumni Officer will, after rejecting ballot papers that fail to comply with the requirements, count the valid votes recorded;
  - 3.13.7.5. each candidate is entitled to request, in writing, the Alumni Officer to appoint an independent scrutineer to be present at the count of votes;
  - 3.13.7.6. the candidate who polls the highest number of votes will be declared elected, the candidate who polls the next highest number of votes will also be declared elected, and the process continued until the number of vacancies has been filled;
  - 3.13.7.7. in the event of an equality of votes and the necessity of excluding one or more of the candidates, the matter will be resolved by the Alumni Officer by lot, in the manner prescribed in clause 27 of the By-law; and
  - 3.13.7.8. if the nominations received do not exceed the number of vacancies, the Alumni Officer will declare the candidate(s) duly elected.
- 3.13.8. The procedure for conducting a ballot for the positions of President or Vice-President of the Alumni Advisory Committee is as follows:
- 3.13.8.1. a ballot paper will be prepared by the Alumni Officer including the names of nominated candidates and the position for which they are nominating;
  - 3.13.8.2. members will be instructed to insert a number alongside the name of each candidate for each position, with the number '1' being the member's first preference, the number '2' being the member's second preference, and so on;
  - 3.13.8.3. the Alumni Officer will, after rejecting ballot papers that fail to comply with the requirements, count the valid votes recorded;
  - 3.13.8.4. each candidate is entitled to nominate in writing to the Alumni Officer one scrutineer to be present at the count of votes;
  - 3.13.8.5. the candidate who polls the highest number of first preference votes will be declared elected to the position for which they have nominated; and

- 3.13.8.6. in the event of an equality of votes and the necessity of excluding one or more of the candidates, the matter will be counting the number of second preference votes for each relevant candidate with the candidate who has received the highest number of second preference votes being elected. If there is still an equality of votes, the matter will be resolved by counting the number of third preference votes for each relevant candidate with the candidate who has received the highest number of third preference votes being elected.
