

MISSION: Our mission is to advance responsible and impactful business knowledge. To achieve our mission, we develop life ready graduates and build global and local partnerships through ethical and innovative practices.

OVERVIEW

Course Description	All firms face decisions amongst alternatives when determining both how the firm will be financed and which projects offer the greatest return on investment. ACFI2080 expands across the financing decisions of firms, considers the implications of competitive markets for management, sources of long-term financing, alternative methods of raising capital and the impact of mergers and acquisitions. Students engage in problem solving and decision-making techniques reflective of current professional practice.
Contact Hours	Integrated Learning Session Face to Face On Campus 2 hour(s) per Week for Full Term
Unit Weighting	Students are expected to complete 4 hours of guided learning via online preparation, lectures, interactive workshops, tutorials, discussion groups or self-directed learning and an additional 6 hours of independent study per week. 10
Requisites	Students must have successfully completed ACFI2070 to enrol in this course.
Workload	Students are required to spend on average 120-140 hours of effort (contact and non-contact) including assessments per 10 unit course.
