

GSBS6484: Corporate Governance and Social Responsibility 2023

MISSION: Our mission is to advance responsible and impactful business knowledge. To achieve our mission, we develop life ready graduates and build global and local partnerships through ethical and innovative practices.

OVERVIEW

Course Description

Corporate Governance and Social Responsibility examines how corporations respond to ethical dilemmas whilst considering the needs of their various stakeholders. This requires an understanding of the social responsibilities of business in a global environment. Expectations of corporate behaviour by stakeholders changes constantly and must be viewed through the lens of corporate governance, risk management and the legal requirements made of company executives and directors.

Course Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Distinguish the various expectations and demands that emanate from stakeholders on organisations;
2. Practice appropriate business responses and management approaches for dealing with social, political, environmental, technological and global issues;
3. Describe ethical theories and practices and the influence of these issues on society, management decision making, behaviour and policies;
4. Define governance in business and discuss the legitimacy of business as an institution in a global society; and
5. Evaluate the extent to which social, ethical, public and global issues must be considered by organisations from an accountability perspective in contrast to purely commercial interests.
