

EPPREP 760: Academic Survival Skills

Callaghan

Summer 2 - 2024

THE UNIVERSITY OF
NEWCASTLE
AUSTRALIA

The Pathways and Academic Learning Support Centre recognises and respects the unique history and culture of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and their unbroken relationship with the lands and the waters of Australia over millennia. We are dedicated to reconciliation and to offering opportunities for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to access and succeed in higher education. The Centre is committed to providing a culturally safe and inclusive environment for all.

OVERVIEW

Course Description

This course will explore the essential skills needed to succeed at university and provide students with the opportunity to apply these skills. These essential skills include: understanding assessments and their rubrics, researching and evaluating sources, critically reading and paraphrasing academic texts, and understanding referencing conventions. In addition, in order to not just survive university but to enjoy university, this course will cover time management, planning, and study skills to make studying more efficient and less stressful. Furthermore, an important element of doing well at university is knowing when to ask for help and whom to ask. To aid this, this course will familiarise students with the university's support systems. This preparation course is appropriate for all students who wish to improve their academic performance.

Communication Methods

Email is the principal form of communication at the university and within this course. Always use your student email (NUmail), rather than a private email address, and check this regularly. As Course Coordinator I will try to respond to your email within three (3) working days. I will not normally respond to emails over the weekends. Please be courteous in your email communication and in the online space. The University of Newcastle has a Code of Conduct that covers all communications in the University for staff and students.

Canvas is used to distribute course material, announcements and other information. It is also used for online quizzes and to allow students to track their individual progressive assessment results via Grades.

Discussions forums in Canvas can be used to ask questions about minor issues. Students are strongly encouraged to use these to communicate with each other, discuss issues relating to the course, and solve minor problems.

Adverse Circumstances

The University acknowledges the right of students to seek consideration for the impact of allowable adverse circumstances that may affect their performance in assessment item(s). Applications for Adverse Circumstances must be lodged via the online Adverse Circumstances system for all individual assessment items worth 30% or greater by 11:00pm on the day the assessment is due. For assessment items less than 30%, you will need to contact your Course Coordinator by 11:00pm on the due date of the assessment item.

Before applying you must refer to the Adverse Circumstances Affecting Assessment Items Procedure and the Adverse Circumstances Affecting Assessment Items Policy.

Please note that students must submit their adverse circumstances application via the online Adverse Circumstances system by 11:00pm on the due date of the assessment item, even if you are using a Reasonable Adjustment Plan \(RAP\) as your supporting documentation.

Academic Misconduct

All students are required to meet the academic integrity standards of the University. These standards reinforce the importance of integrity and honesty in an academic environment. Academic Integrity policies apply to all students of the University in all modes of study and in all locations. Please refer to the Student Academic Integrity Policy.
