SYLLABUS

Course Content	The course is designed to include all of the Prescribed Academic Areas of Knowledge in civil dispute resolution set out by the Law Admissions Consultative Committee, required for admission into legal practice in Australia. This includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• The civil justice system(s) in Australia and the importance of access to justice;</li><li>• The adversarial litigation process and non-adversarial alternatives;</li><li>• The initiation of proceedings in time and the service and execution of process;</li><li>• Procedural mechanisms to obtain and protect evidence and vary proceedings as required; and</li><li>• Bringing proceedings to an end and addressing the issue of costs.</li></ul>
-----------------------	--

The course is also designed to facilitate opportunities to practise and reflect upon the skills embedded in the Graduate Skills Portfolio for this course, namely:

- Negotiation;
- Writing to a lay audience; and
- Policy and law reform.

Course Learning Outcomes	On successful completion of this course, students will be able to:
---------------------------------	---

1. Apply a specialised and advanced knowledge and understanding of the roles of the civil justice system(s), dispute resolution processes (from the commencement of proceedings through to enforcement), and the operation of civil procedure rules to solve complex practical problems.
2. Practise and reflect upon the skills involved in ethically negotiating to resolve disputes.
3. Analyse and evaluate the policies and principles that underline the Australian civil justice system and propose meaningful law reform to litigation and other dispute resolution processes.

4. Select and apply appropriate approaches to communicate clearly and persuasively with legal and non-legal audiences, without compromising the accuracy of the legal information.

Course Materials

The textbook for this course is:

- Sonya Wills, Civil Dispute Resolution: Balancing Themes and Theory, (2022) published by Cambridge University Press (available in hard copy and electronic versions, and both versions have been ordered for the library). The link to the e-copy is here.

You will also need to have access to key pieces of legislation for this course:

- Civil Procedure Act 2005 (NSW)
- Uniform Civil Procedure Rules (UCPR) 2005 (NSW)
- Uniform Civil Procedure Rules (UCPR) forms

This course is supported with materials on Canvas (which is the replacement system for Blackboard).

To ensure that grades are fair both within and between courses and cohorts, the School of Law and Justice has a rigorous policy of moderating and reviewing assessments. The School Assessment Board (SAB) reviews all final grades before they are released to students, and the SAB process may result in the overall marks of a class being moved up or down by a specific amount, thus impacting individual marks. This is consistent with grading practices in other Law Schools across the country and important to ensure the integrity of assessments. This means that the final grade you are awarded may not be the sum of marks you have received in all assessments.

Late Submissions

The mark for an assessment item submitted after the designated time on the due date, without an approved extension of time, will be reduced by 10% of the possible maximum mark for that assessment item for each day or part day that the assessment item is late. This applies equally to week and weekend days.

Assessment 1 – Attendance and Participation

Assessment Type Description

Attendance and Participation

There is a compulsory attendance requirement in this course. Attendance at all seminars will be monitored and records maintained by the Course Coordinator and the seminar lecturers. In order to satisfy this requirement, students must be present at a minimum of 80% of scheduled classes (or 9 out of 12 seminars) as listed above, unless they are able to demonstrate that their absence falls within the Adverse Circumstances policy. Unless this requirement is met, despite marks awarded in other assessment items, the student will receive a zero mark and a CF grade for the course.

Please note that if you miss more than 2 classes for reasons that fall within the University's adverse circumstances policy you may be required to complete additional assessment items to ensure that you have completed the required volume of learning for this course.

Weighting

This is a formative assessment and will not contribute to your final grade. However, as explained above, attendance is a pre-requisite for passing the course.

Due Date

Ongoing

Submission Method

Please advise your seminar teacher if you are unable to attend in a particular week because of adverse circumstances.

Assessment 2 – Online Quizzes

Assessment Type Description

Online Quizzes

This assessment requires you to answer a (random) set of multiple-choice questions drawn from a pool of questions relevant to this course. The first quiz tests your command of material covered in Weeks 1-4 of the course and the second quiz your command of material covered in weeks 5-8. Each quiz lasts 120 minutes and serves to ensure that you are keeping up with the progress required for this course.

Weighting

30% of your final mark (i.e. each quiz counts towards 15% of your final mark)

Due Date

The first quiz will be made available to you on Canvas on Tuesday 2 April at 11:59pm and you must complete the quiz by Wednesday 3 April 11:59pm. Similarly, the second quiz will be made available to you on Thursday 9 May at 11:59pm and you must complete the quiz by Friday 10 May 11:59pm. Please note that once you start a quiz on Canvas, you will only have 2 hours (i.e. 120 minutes) to complete it.

Submission Method Assessment Criteria

Online via Canvas

On Canvas

Return Method Online via Canvas
Feedback Provided Marks and answers will be released once the quiz is closed.

Assessment 3 – Letter of Advice

Assessment Type Written Assignment (1000 words)
Description This assessment aims at developing your skills to write clearly and persuasively to non-legal audiences without compromising the accuracy of the legal information. It builds on the material covered in Weeks 1-7.
Weighting 20% of your final mark
Due Date Friday 26 April by 11:59pm
Submission Method Online via Canvas
Assessment Criteria On Canvas and discussed in the seminars
Return Method Online via Canvas
Feedback Provided Feedback provided based on the marking rubric. The marking rubric will be made available on Canvas in due course.

Assessment 4 - End of Semester Exam

Assessment Type In-person Invigilated Exam (3hrs)
Description This is a 3-hour formal exam and tests students' ability to identify and analyse legal issues and apply correct legal rules and principles when given hypothetical factual matrixes. It will focus on the material covered in Weeks 4-12.
Weighting 50%
Due Date To be announced.
Submission Method n/a
Assessment Criteria Details to be provided on Canvas
Return Method The exam mark will be released as part of your final grade – see the University Calendar.
Feedback Provided Provided only upon request via access to exam paper and discussion.

*Skills are those identified for the purposes of assessment task(s).

Communication Methods

Communication in this course will take place via Canvas and in the face-to-face seminars.

Course Evaluation

Each year feedback is sought from students and other stakeholders about the courses offered in the University for the purposes of identifying areas of excellence and potential improvement.

Oral Interviews

As part of the evaluation process of any assessment item in this course an oral examination may be conducted. The purpose of the oral examination is to verify the authorship of the material submitted in response to the assessment task. The oral examination will be conducted in accordance with the principles set out in the Oral Examination Guidelines. In cases where the oral examination reveals the assessment item may not be the student's own work the case will be dealt with under the Student Conduct Rule.

Academic Misconduct

All students are required to meet the academic integrity standards of the University. These standards reinforce the importance of integrity and honesty in an academic environment. Academic Integrity policies apply to all students of the University in all modes of study and in all locations. For the Student Academic Integrity Policy, refer to <https://policies.newcastle.edu.au/document/view-current.php?id=35>.

Adverse Circumstances

The University acknowledges the right of students to seek consideration for the impact of allowable adverse circumstances that may affect their performance in assessment item(s). Applications for special consideration due to adverse circumstances will be made using the online Adverse Circumstances system where:

1. the assessment item is a major assessment item; or
2. the assessment item is a minor assessment item & the Course Co-ordinator has specified in the Course Outline that students may apply the online Adverse Circumstances system;
3. you are requesting a change of placement; or
4. the course has a compulsory attendance requirement.

Before applying you must refer to the Adverse Circumstance Affecting Assessment Items Procedure available at:

<https://policies.newcastle.edu.au/document/view-current.php?id=236>

Wellness Contacts

There are a variety of pressures on law students, and being able to perform well academically under pressure, without excessive stress will contribute to enhanced outcomes in wellbeing and academic results. Reach out to support services and learn ways to maintain your mental health, deal with stress and common issues like perfectionism, procrastination and anxiety.
