

MISSION: To develop a unique business school identity which is distinctive in the marketplace and provides a clear value proposition for students. This will be achieved by embedding the themes of entrepreneurship and innovation, digitalisation and data within our programs and embracing sustainability, work integrated learning and a commitment to social justice.

OVERVIEW

Course Description This course introduces key concepts and frameworks in the study of leisure and tourism and is a required course for the Bachelor of Tourism, Hospitality and Events, and the Tourism and Events Management Major. The course introduces students to the study of human leisure behaviours associated with tourism and recreation, using concepts and theories from contemporary leisure and tourism studies. Individual differences in participation and experience are explored using theories, models and case studies related to the concepts of free-time, choice and constraint, motivation and commitment, and identity. Throughout the course students will be introduced to corresponding market and policy responses to the leisure needs of individuals and groups as they manifest in the Australian and global context.

Assessment 1 – Leisure Analysis Report (Part 1) - Individual Photo Documentation Research Report

Assessment Type	Report
Purpose	To examine major determinants for individual choice in leisure behaviour
Description	The Leisure Analysis Report is a two-part assessment using visual and textual methods to critically analyse key issues in leisure behaviour. The visual reports encourage students to visually depict and critically explain leisure behaviour to reflect on diverse needs in leisure provision. Part 1 is an Individual Photo Documentation Research Report. Students are required to consider individual leisure behaviour and locate academic literature on their selected activity. The purpose of the Leisure Analysis Report Part 1 is to introduce students to research and theories used to study leisure behaviour. Students will take a photograph of a leisure activity that they regularly engage in during their leisure time. Using the provided template, students will submit the photograph with an explanation of the significance of the leisure activity to their self-identity. Students are also required to locate three academic studies that examine their selected leisure activity and provide full citations in APA format of these three sources. See CANVAS for further information, including the recommended leisure journals from which to research the leisure activity.

Assessment 2 – Leisure Analysis Report (Part 2) – Group Photovoice Research Report

Assessment Type	Report
Purpose	To analyse the way leisure services are organised to address diverse leisure needs
Description	The Group Photovoice Report builds on the first assessment by considering individual differences in the choice and experience of specific forms leisure, and to investigate and describe how leisure services are organised to address diverse leisure needs in the Australian context. Part 2 is a Group Photovoice Report. Students will work in groups assigned by the course coordinator on leisure sectors related to their area of personal interest (as determined in Part 1). Each group will create a Photovoice Report. The visual and written report will be composed of original photographs that address key issues in the provision and organisation of the group's leisure sector. The Photovoice report will critically engage with key concepts and theories in leisure studies by engaging with academic research. See CANVAS for further information, including details on the use of Photovoice as a research method for reaching policy makers to enact social change and community improvement. Please note: Self and Peer Assessment: A single mark is given for the group assignment. This mark will then be moderated by "self and peer assessment" using the SPARKPlus software so that individual group members may receive different marks. Any moderated individual mark received by each group member is based on contribution to the assignment and, more importantly the ability to work with others. Individually group members are required to submit a self and peer assessment through SPARK within 24 hours of the due date. Failure to complete SPARK will result in a mark of zero. The criteria for the self and peer assessment are found along with the instructions on how to use SPARK on CANVAS. Please note: NO SPARK NO MARK.
