Faculty of Engineering and Built Environment

Master of Architecture
Program Code: 12060

Graduate Profile

Graduates of a Master of Architecture program will be able to demonstrate:

1. Architecture graduates will be able to operate effectively with and upon a body of knowledge of sufficient depth to begin professional practice;

2. Architecture graduates will be committed to ethical action and social responsibility as professionals and citizens;

3. Architecture graduates will be able to work autonomously and collaboratively as professionals;

4. Architecture graduates will be able to communicate effectively in professional practice and as members of the community;

5. Architecture graduates will demonstrate an international perspective as professionals and citizens.

6. Architecture graduates will have the leadership capacity to engage in constructive public discourse.

7. Architecture graduates will be effective problem solvers and researchers, with a capacity to apply logical, critical and creative thinking to the advancement of knowledge.

8. Architecture graduates will have a commitment to life-long learning and continuing excellence in their professional practice.